Dear Mr. Kaczmarek:

We have approved your request to convert to a community charter to serve persons who live, work, worship, or go to school in, and businesses and other legal entities located in Erie County, Pennsylvania.

The enclosed amendment is approved in advance and need only be adopted by your board of directors in accordance with Article XVII, Section 1 of the revised Federal Credit Union Bylaws effective October 14, 1999.

NCUA will generally permit federal credit unions serving occupational and associational groups to overlap community charters. Therefore, conversion of your field of membership does not protect your credit union from overlaps by credit unions desiring to serve select employee or associational groups in the area. Additionally, approval to serve this community does not preclude any other credit union from gaining approval to serve the same community.

If you have any questions, please contact Insurance Analyst Cynthia Vaughn at (703) 519-4622.

Sincerely,

ED 5/2/03

RE: Community Charter Conversion Application

Dear Ms. James:

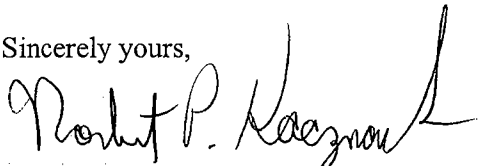

Erie School Employees Federal Credit Union, Charter #01476, wishes to convert our existing multiple-group charter to a community charter to serve the residents of Erie County, Pennsylvania. This letter, along with the attached maps, geographic narrative, and demographic statistics will outline the area that we propose to serve. We have also included Pro Forma Financial Statement projections for 2003-2004 based on projected growth and the uncertain economic environment, a marketing plan that includes plans and programs to service the community, and current and planned future delivery systems and community involvement. We have budgeted significant funds to market credit union eligibility, products and services, and membership benefits to the Erie County community areas via radio, billboard, television, and newspaper advertising. We wish to serve the following community area:

All people who live, work, worship, attend school in, and businesses and other legal entities in the county of Erie, in the state of Pennsylvania.

The total population of Erie County, Pennsylvania, per 2000 Census Bureau data, is 280,843. We believe that the Erie School Employees FCU, with our current (and planned) locations within the proposed community area and the numerous remote access delivery channels that the credit union offers, is well-positioned to serve residents of this community and request the granting of a community charter to serve the residents of the Erie County community.

The Board of Directors and Management of the Erie School Employees Federal Credit Union recognize that limited opportunities exist for future expansion through existing SEG development and new SEG's, and we believe that a Community Charter conversion is the best opportunity to ensure the growth and future success of the credit union. Your consideration in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Norbert P. Kaczmarek, CCUE
CEO
Erie School Employees Federal Credit Union

DIRECTORS:

Section 1: Introduction to Erie School Employees Federal Credit Union

Erie School Employees Federal Credit Union (ESE FCU), Charter Number 01476, requests authorization from the National Credit Union Administration to change its current multi-group charter to a community charter. The credit union is requesting this change in an effort to diversify and expand its membership and to offer credit union services to the residents of Erie County in the state of Pennsylvania.

This application package will show that:

- Erie School Employees FCU's proposed field of membership is a well-defined community area where residents interact and share common interests and facilities.
- Erie School Employees FCU is qualified to meet the need for credit union services in the requested areas.
- Erie School Employees FCU has the necessary financial and operational capabilities to expand its services into the requested community area.

Erie School Employees FCU's Board of Directors and Management submit this application in support of our request, in accordance with NCUA's Chartering and Field of Membership Manual, Interpretive Ruling and Policy Statement 99-1, and 12 CFR, and Part 701.

Credit Union History

The Erie School Employees FCU is a full-service financial institution that offers a comprehensive package of services to our members. The credit union was formed in June of 1936 by a group of local Erie educators who started the credit union with their own funds, meager means, and no staffing. In the 66 years since its inception, the credit union has grown from a Single Occupational Common Bond into a Multiple Common Bond credit union with over 130 Select Employer Groups (SEG's) and over $150 million in assets.

The credit union currently has three branch locations. The Main Office is located at 1109 East 38th Street in Erie; the Bayfront Office (West Side) is located at 1005 Greengarden Road in Erie; and our East Erie Office is located at 2436 Buffalo Road in Erie. We are

Erie School Employees FCU’s Proposed Community

Erie School Employees FCU requests approval from NCUA to convert its current multiple-group charter to a community charter. The credit union seeks to serve the following community field of membership:

Persons who live, worship, work or attend school in, and businesses and other legal entities located in Erie County in the state of Pennsylvania.

A map of the proposed area is included in the application package as part of the documentation in Section 2.

Reasons for Pursuing a Community Charter

Mission Statement: The Erie School Employees FCU is a member-owned financial institution. Our mission is to deliver a wide-range of financial services while demonstrating genuine concern for the financial well being of all members and their families. The pricing of services will enable the credit union to sustain growth and financial stability.

The Board of Directors and Management of Erie School Employees FCU strive to pursue the credit union philosophy of “People Helping People” by offering a complete range of financial services at reasonable cost to the member. As a result, the leadership of the credit union believes that the most effective way to fulfill our mission (as stated above) is to provide credit union membership to as many people as possible is by converting the existing multiple-group charter to a community charter. While the credit union has approximately 130 SEG's, the opportunity to add new SEG's is limited because of already established SEG relationships with Erie School Employees FCU or other credit unions in the community. Further, the credit unions' current potential membership of 28,712 is penetrated nearly 70% by the current actual membership of 19,141. ~~As a means of continuing to grow and offer additional services, we feel that a community charter is essential.~~ In addition, the credit unions' core group, the Erie School District, is an inner-city school district facing difficult times in both budgeting decisions and decreased/stagnant staffing during the past 20 years. ESE FCU is committed to serving the residents and employees of Erie County. If our charter conversion is approved, we will fill a service need in the Erie County community. We further believe that the credit union has the strength (financially and personnel-wise), service capability, and management expertise to serve as a primary financial institution (PFI) alternative in the proposed community. More importantly, our management team possesses the necessary desire and commitment to service the needs of Erie County residents.

~~The ability to continue to expand the membership base is critical to the long-term success of the credit union.~~ A community charter would allow the credit union to offer its wide range of services to a larger group of potential members. ~~By increasing membership the credit union can then continue to add the services that are necessary to compete in today's ultra-competitive financial services industry.~~ In addition, ~~many of the SEG's that the credit union currently has in the field of membership have either closed or severely cut back on employees.~~ In consideration of the limited potential to grow from within the existing field of membership, it is crucial that we are able to expand membership and we feel that the most efficient and effective avenue of doing so is by pursuing a community charter.

Need for a Community Credit Union

Erie County houses a significant number of residents with severe financial needs and situations. NCUA's "Serving the Underserved" CDFI program identifies several census tracts within the City of Erie alone that are designated underserved investment areas. Erie School Employees FCU will provide the Erie County community with high-quality, low-cost financial services that will benefit the cost-conscious, low-income consumers in each of these areas, especially those who cannot afford services provided by other institutions. Our low minimum balance requirements, no and/or low fees services, and convenience will appeal to all consumers in the proposed community area.

*Currently, Erie County has no credit union serving the entire community with a community charter designation. Erie General Electric Employees FCU and Lord FCU each have expanded their charters to serve Underserved Investment Areas in and around the City of Erie. As a community-based credit union, Erie School Employees FCU would expand upon our already active role in local community programs and organizations. We would especially look for opportunities to better educate community members about financial matters, including credit union membership. We will continue to provide monetary support to local community charitable efforts, and focus on broad-based organizations addressing concerns shared by the entire community. [Please see the attached Annual Report from 2001 that identifies the local organizations already being served by Erie School Employees FCU].

We believe that ESE FCU is well positioned to serve the Erie County community, through both our branching strategy and our menu of remote access delivery channels including, but not limited to: Telematic audio response service available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week; Virtual Branch Home Banking & Online Bill Pay services; MasterCard Debit and Credit Cards; Share Draft Checking accounts; and fifteen (15) ESE-owned ATM's in Erie County. There are also seven (7) additional ATM's owned by other credit unions in Erie County where our members are not surcharged for using these ATM's through "CU Dollar" no-surcharge alliance.

Please see the supporting documentation at the end of this section for further explanation of the information provided in Section 1.

COMMENTS:

I returned Mary Beth's call. She called to determine the status of the credit union's proposal to merge the County of Erie, PA FCU into their credit union. She recognized Cynthia K. was processing the application, but she will not be back into the office until next week. She asked if I could provide her with an update. After determining the status, I told her the merger was approved, and I agreed to fax a copy of the approval letters.

Then, I informed Mary Beth that I needed to talk to some one about the credit union's loan products and its low loans/shares ratio since the CEO, Norbert Kaczmarek, would not be in the office until next week. She offered to help me. She said the credit union's low loans/shares ratio has a lot of due with the current economy in Erie. Erie is primarily comprised of industrial, manufacturing type of businesses. During the past two years, these businesses have not done well financially. They have been constantly laying off employees. Several businesses have moved out of Erie. Area residents are scared to borrow due to these events and conditions.

Mary Beth said the low loans/shares ratio also may be partially due to the credit union's underwriting guidelines, which are somewhat tight. She said the credit union is somewhat reluctant to grant loans to people with bad credit histories, especially in light of the current economic conditions in Erie. She acknowledged they do not have risk based lending yet, nor is it planned for in the near future.

However, Mary Beth states she has been aggressively marketing loans and has spent about 80% of her marketing budget in loan promotions. Meanwhile, she mentioned the credit union had good growth in loans this year. She said loans increased about $3.5 million dollars, thus far. She agreed to fax a growth report to support it.

I asked her what loan products are geared to people of low to modest means. She mentioned personal loans starting at $500 and credit cards starting at $300.

Subject: Community Charter Proposal

Hi Mary Beth,

This confirms our conversation about two items needed to complete the review of your community charter conversion proposal. First, we need a better map of Erie County which sufficiently discloses the county's boundaries and the characteristics of the area. On this map, you need to outline the county's boundaries with a highlighter and show the location of ESE FCU's existing and proposed facilities.

Second, we need information on the groups located outside of the community boundaries, including the name and location of each group, as well as the number of current and potential members, if possible. In addition, you need to submit a draft copy of the letter you plan to send to these groups informing them of potential loss of credit union service upon approval of the community charter conversion.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Dear Cynthia:

I have enclosed a map of Erie County and plotted our current main and branch office locations as you have requested. Our three current office locations are marked in yellow, to designate already existing credit union main and branch office locations. The green office location is located on Zuck Road and is scheduled to be open to the public by January 2004. The orange office location, in central downtown Erie, is a proposed merger with the County of Erie PA FCU. If NCUA approves this merger, we will be keeping this office location open to serve the inner city community. All red markings indicate ESEFCU owned ATM locations. We also participate in the CU$ network in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which allows members access to Surcharge Free ATMs. A detailed inner city map of street locations is also available on the back of the county map. I have also indicated office and proposed office locations on this map as well.

After doing further investigation on where our SEGs and their subsidiary branch operations are located, I have discovered that the only groups that will be affected are the ones affiliated with the Catholic Diocese of Erie. Most of those groups are Catholic Schools outside the Erie County Line. I have enclosed a listing of those schools with their addresses and contact person names. I will be sending letters to all of those schools informing them of the pending charter change. The other group that has group homes outside the Erie County Line is Catholic Charities Counseling. Their main office is located in Erie, PA but they do run payroll for two group homes just outside the Erie County Area. Each home has approximately 6 employees and only three of those employees are currently members. I am sending the letter on to the Erie office to forward on to the other locations. A copy of the proposed letter is enclosed for your information.

Please contact me directly with any questions you may have regarding the enclosed materials. I can be reached at 814-825-2436 ext. 321.

COMMUNITY CHARTER CONVERSION
Erie School Employees FCU #01476
Assets $155 Million
Erie, PA
May 2003

1. GENERAL BACKGROUND

Erie School Employees Federal Credit Union (ESE FCU) is a $155 million, (b)(8) institution located in Erie, Pennsylvania. In 1936, the credit union was chartered to serve employees of the School District of the City of Erie, Pennsylvania. Over the years, the credit union has added approximately 205 select groups to its field of membership (FOM).

On February 20, 2003, we received ESE FCU's request to convert to a community credit union encompassing Erie County, Pennsylvania. The credit union is requesting this change to further diversify and expand its FOM since many select groups have closed or cut back on the number of their employees. The credit union currently serves select groups throughout Erie County, and has resources to serve the proposed community.

ESE FCU's December 31, 2002 call report data shows it had assets of $155,469,089. It also shows the credit union was serving 19,254 out of 28,881 potential members, representing a penetration ratio of 66.7 percent.

A. Proposal

ESE FCU proposes to serve persons who live, work, worship, attend school in, and businesses and other legal entities located in Erie County, Pennsylvania.

Our records indicate this area has not previously been approved as a community.

B. Delegated Authority

The population of the proposed community is 280,843 per the 2000 U.S. Census Bureau data. Since the proposed community consists of a single political jurisdiction, and has a current population of fewer than 300,000, streamlined criteria apply. The Regional Director has delegated authority to approve the application under CHA 3.

C. SEGs Outside Community

The proposal does not contain a list of the SEGs located outside of the proposed community boundaries. However, the credit union's April 15, 2003 letter states it has a few groups affiliated with the Catholic Diocese of Erie, which are located outside of Erie County. These groups are primarily catholic schools. The credit union provided a sample letter it plans to send to these groups, advising the credit union can no longer sign up new members from their organization upon conversion, but will continue to serve members of record.

2. WELL DEFINED AREA THAT IS A LOCAL COMMUNITY, NEIGHBORHOOD, OR RURAL DISTRICT

A. Geographic Boundaries

Erie County covers approximately 802 square miles in the northwestern corner of Pennsylvania. The county is a mixture of rural and urban, and has a population density of approximately 350 persons per square mile. The county is bordered by Lake Erie and Erie's Presque Isle Bay on the north; Ohio state line on the west; Crawford County, PA on the south; and New York state line and Warren County, PA on the east.

ESE FCU provided a county map and a regional map obtained from a computer software program. The Erie County map discloses the location of the credit union's three existing and two proposed facilities, along with its 13 proprietary ATMs. The county map also shows the boundaries and characteristics of Erie County. The county's boundaries sufficiently meet the requirement for the boundaries to be fixed and clearly defined as prescribed in Chapter 2, Sections V.A.1 and V. A. 2, the Chartering and FOM Manual.

B. Well-defined Local Community, Neighborhood, or Rural District

Political Jurisdictions. Erie County is recognized as a single political jurisdiction, governed by a seven member county council. It has a Home Rule form of government. The county was created from a part of Allegheny County in 1800, and named for Lake Erie. Its name was also derived from the Eriez Indians, the earliest inhabitants of the area. The City of Erie is the county seat. The Erie Area Council of Governments serves the community and is comprised of representatives from the individual municipalities in Erie County.

Traffic Flows. Interstate 79 and State Routes 8 and 19 provide county residents with north to south travel, while Interstate 90 and State Routes 20 and 6 provide east to west access.

Major Trade Area. The major trade area is located on Peach Street in the City of Erie. The main shopping mall is located at 5800 Peach Street with over 150 stores, including Sears, Burlington, Elder Beerman, Kaufmann's, J.C. Penney, Office Max, TJ Maxx, Eddie Bauer, Old Navy, Gap, a cinema, and several restaurants. In addition, three additional major shopping plazas are located on Peach Street where residents go to shop at Wal-Mart, Barnes & Noble, Home Depot, Media Play, Target, Lowe's and many small retailers, and several restaurants.

Shared Services and Common Facilities. Erie County residents share many services and common facilities, which provide opportunities for interaction among the residents. Examples of the community's shared services and common facilities are:

Erie Metropolitan Transit Authority: The Erie Metropolitan Transit Authority provides residents with bus and shuttle service throughout Erie City and Erie County.

Erie International Airport: The Erie International Airport, at Tom Ridge Field, is located 15 minutes from downtown Erie. This airport meets the flight needs of all Erie County residents.

Erie Public School System: Approximately 42,322 out of 51,461 total school aged children (or 82%) attend the Erie County Public School System.

Higher Education: For higher education to advance their careers, Erie County residents primarily attend either one of the two four-year public universities or two private, catholic college and university. The two public universities are Edinboro University of Pennsylvania, in Edinboro, which enrolled over 7,500 students; and Penn State Erie University, in Erie, which enrolled about 3,700 students. The two catholic institutions are Gannon University, in Erie, which enrolled about 3,300 students; and Mercyhurst College, in Erie, which enrolled about 3,000 students.

Healthcare: County residents have a choice of healthcare facilities, which offer a variety of services to meet their healthcare needs. They are:

- ❖ Hamot Medical Center – The Hamot Medical Center is a 467-bed facility offering medical services and programs through a staff of 2,000. Its specialized services include The Hamot Heart Institute which brings advanced cardiac technologies and procedures to the Erie County residents; Hamot's Orthopedic Institute, offering services to those suffering sports related injuries, stroke or joint placement surgery and includes a Hip and Knee Center; and the School of Anesthesia, offering a graduate level nursing program to those registered nurses who wish to broaden their careers. In addition, Hamot Medical Center offers residency programs to doctors in training in the areas of family medicine, orthopedic surgery, and clinical pharmacology.
- ❖ Saint Vincent Health System – the Saint Vincent Health System was established in 1875 as Erie's first hospital. This 450-bed facility is home to heart surgery, and orthopedic centers. It offers specialized care, as well as a maternity center, which delivers about 2,000 babies per year. It is the only local hospital offering myocardial navigation which mapping pinpointed damaged areas in the heart. It has more than 400 physicians and a support staff of 2,000, which treat thousands of residents per year.
- ❖ HealthSouth Rehabilitation Hospital of Erie – Part of HealthSouth, Inc., this 100-bed hospital handles county residents' acute medical needs. HealthSouth physicians and staff work with residents recovering from injuries, as well as those dealing acute medical conditions, such as arthritis and multiple sclerosis. The main campus is located in downtown Erie, and the satellite facility at Family First Sports Park.
- ❖ The Regional Cancer Center – The Regional Cancer Center, in Erie, is one of three regional cancer centers and one of the first freestanding community cancer centers in the country. This center delivers major treatment specialties, including medical oncology, radiation oncology, and hematology. This center provides over 27,000 radiation treatments per year.

Lewis J. Tuillo Arena: Residents frequently attend the Tuillo Arena, in Erie, for ice shows, concerts, circuses, and basketball matches. The arena has 5,500 permanent seats, but can be expanded to 7,000.

Waldameer & Waterworld: During the summers, residents go regularly go to Waldameer & Waterworld, in Erie, to enjoy over 75 rides, slides, and water attractions.

Museums: The county's early history and lifestyle are recorded in the local museums. The museums' activities bring the resident together and foster interaction. A few of these museums includes the Erie History Center, Erie Maritime Museum, Bicentennial Tower, Raymond M. Blasco M.D. Memorial Library, Presque Isle Lighthouse Center, Erie Art Museum, Lakeshore Railroad Museum, General Strong Vincent Museum, and Erie Children's Museum.

Lakes and Parks: County residents regularly get together and interact at the county's many lakes, beaches, and parks during their leisure time. They go to Lake Erie and several tributary creeks and parks to enjoy swimming, boating, picnicking, fishing, hiking, biking, hunting, skiing, and snowmobiling. Some of the lakes and parks include Lake Erie, Presque Isle State Park and Beaches, Harbor Creek Community Park, Shades Beach, Erie Zoological Park and Botanical Garden, US Brig Niagara, Asbury Woods and Greenway, Liberty Park, and Downtown Erie Discovery Square.

Organizations. Erie County has a number of organizations and clubs exclusively serving its residents. Residents' membership and participation in these organizations assist in providing for the community's cohesiveness, as well as interaction. The most significant organizations and clubs are the Erie Area Chamber of Commerce, Penn State Cooperative Extension of Erie, United Way of Erie County, Erie Conference on Community Development, Erie Council of Governments, Kiwanis Club of Erie, Rotary Club of Erie, YMCA of Greater Erie, and Erie County Convention Center Authority.

Festivals/Events. Erie County has many festivals and special events that draw residents from throughout the county and contribute to it being a close-knit community. The major festivals and events are the Erie County Fair, HarborFest in Harbor Creek, Erie Summer Festival of the Arts at Liberty Park, Discover Presque Isle, Cherry Festival, Dan Rice Days, Winter Carnival, and First Night Erie New Year's Eve event.

Newspaper. The Erie Times News is the main community newspaper covering Erie County's local news and events. For residents' convenience, this newspaper has an Internet edition at <http://www.timesnews.com/>.

Low Income Analysis. A review of 2000 Census data indicates Erie County does not meet NCUA's 2002 low-income standard of $33,718. Based on 2000 Census data, Erie County has a median household income of $36,627, which is greater than the benchmark. However, US Census data indicates approximately 12 percent of the county's population lives below the poverty threshold.

ESE FCU is currently serving members in the depressed areas of Erie County. It has also weathered the effect industry declines, plant closings and layoffs, and corporate downsizing had on Erie County. The officials are aware of the concerns of the low-income and underserved areas, and will continue to strive to provide the highest quality service to all members of the community, focusing on providing affordable financial services to the "unbanked."

The credit union's products and services geared toward this segment of the community include money orders; share draft accounts with no minimum balance requirement, no monthly charges, and unlimited check writing privileges; and overdraft protection; share accounts with a $50 minimum balance; check cards; no annual fee credit cards starting at $300, and personal loans starting at $500.

CONCLUSION

The proposal contains sufficient evidence to support Erie County is a well-defined local community as outlined in Chapter 2, Section V, of the Chartering and Field of Membership Manual. Erie County has a major trade area, a community hub, many shared and common facilities, several organizations/clubs, festivals and events, and a community newspaper demonstrating the area is a local community where its residents have common interests or interact.

3. OVERLAP ANALYSIS

There is one newly chartered, federally insured credit union in Erie County. Manufacturer's Association Employer/Employees FCU (MEAA FCU), Charter No. 24655, is a multiple common bond credit union located in Erie, PA. It was chartered in June 2001. The credit union has been having difficulty competing with other financial institutions in Erie, including credit unions. SE Richard Obidowski and PE Dominick Nigro recommend overlap protection for the credit union's economic viability as prescribed in Chapter 2, Section V.E.1 of the Chartering and Field of Membership Manual.

However, IRPS 03-1 (effective May 15, 2003) indicates exclusion clauses will no longer be issued for any credit union. In addition, IRPS 03-1 permits a credit union with an exclusion clause to request its removal without any overlap analysis or justification. ESE FCU already submitted a letter requesting the remove of any exclusion clause placed in its FOM. Therefore, we do not recommend placing an exclusion clause in ESE FCU's community charter FOM since it will probably be removed within two weeks.

In addition, it would be difficult for ESE FCU to monitor compliance with the overlap since MEAA FCU is constantly adding groups to its FOM to enhance the potential viability of its credit union. Additionally, MEAA FCU currently has 222 groups in its charter. While it is a small $1.7 million credit union with limited services, it serves a considerable amount of employee groups in Erie. Therefore, the exclusion clause could hamper ESE FCU's ability to serve the community if it is unable to serve any person eligible for primary membership in Manufacturer's Association Employer/Employee FCU's FOM.

(b)(4), (b)(8)

- Products and Services

ESE FCU is a full-service financial institution. It offers a wide range of financial products and services, as well as electronic services for remote access and delivery, as shown below.

Accounts	Loans	Services
➤ savings ($50 minimum)	➤ personal	➤ ATM/debit check cards
➤ share drafts (No minimum)	➤ new & used automobiles	➤ money orders
➤ Christmas/vacation clubs	➤ home equity	➤ travelers cheques
➤ share certificates ($500 min.)	➤ first mortgages	➤ wire transfers
➤ individual retirement accounts	➤ overdraft protection	➤ foreign currency exchange
➤ money market ($5,000 min.)	➤ credit cards	➤ safe deposit boxes
➤ special savings (kids, seniors)	➤ student loans	➤ U.S. savings bonds

The credit union also offers a variety of electronic delivery financial services, which will play an important role in its ability to serve the proposed community. These services include Internet financial access with bill-payer, an audio response system, 15 proprietary ATMs (12 machines are cash dispensers only) in the community, direct deposit, and ATM network affiliation with CU$ (i.e., seven surcharge-free ATMs in Erie County and 500 others statewide).

These products and services are adequate to meet financial needs of the community residents.

(b)(4),(b)(8)

Based upon these projections, the credit union appears to be financially capable of handling the community conversion without it adversely impacting its operations. Field staff concurs with this assessment.

5. CREDIT UNION'S FINANCIAL CONDITION

At the most recent examination, effective 3/31/02, ESE FCU was assigned a (b)(8)
 The examination report did not identify any material concerns.

A review of the credit union's financial performance reports discloses financially sound operations as shown below.

KEY RATIOS	12/31/99	12/31/00	12/31/01	12/31/02
Net Worth	10.63%	10.61%	10.40%	10.42%
Delinquency	0.48%	0.49%	0.36%	0.25%
Net Loss Ratio	0.11%	0.11%	0.14%	0.30%
Return on Assets	0.90%	0.82%	0.62%	0.71%
Loans/Shares	55.85%	54.63%	53.80%	49.72%

The credit union has strong capital, solid earnings, and low delinquency. Therefore, it should be financially capable of handling the community conversion.

6. FIELD RECOMMENDATION

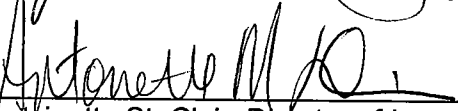

SE Richard Obidowski and PE Dominick Nigro recommend approval of the community conversion, with overlap protection for Manufacturer's Association Employer FCU.

7. REGIONAL RECOMMENDATION

We recommend approval of Erie School Employees FCU's request to convert to a community charter encompassing Erie County, Pennsylvania. The credit union's proposal adequately supports Erie County is a local community where its residents have common interests and interact. The credit union's business plan, including its marketing plan and financial projections, demonstrate the management team is capable of handling the community conversion.

Erie County Community

Section 2. Well-Defined Local Community

We will provide substantial, compelling evidence that Erie County, Pennsylvania qualifies as a “well-defined” local community. We will especially show that the residents are in such proximity that they interact and share common interests and facilities and participate jointly in organizations that address community needs and interests.

Per NCUA, “In most cases, the ‘well-defined, local community, or rural district requirement will be met if the area to be served is in a recognized single political jurisdiction, i.e., a county or its political equivalent. and if the population of the well-defined area does not exceed 300,000.” [IRSP 99-1, 2-44]. It is our contention that Erie County meets these criteria.

Erie County, Pennsylvania is a recognized single political jurisdiction with a population of 280,843. Erie School Employees FCU currently serves SEG’s throughout the Erie County area and has the resources to serve the proposed community area.

Natural Boundaries

Erie County was created part of Allegheny County on March 12, 1800, and named for Lake Erie. The county seat is located in the City of Erie, and the county name is derived from the Eriez Indians, the earliest inhabitants of the area. Erie County is the only portion of the state of Pennsylvania that was not included in William Penn’s original land grant from King Charles II. The area was purchased by Pennsylvania from the U.S. Government in 1795 for access to its natural harbor.

Erie County is bordered to the north by Lake Erie, and Erie’s Presque Isle Bay forms the best natural deepwater harbor in the U.S. Great Lakes region, making the Port of Erie one of the most accessible ports in the region. The community is bordered to the south by Crawford County, PA; to the west by the Ohio state line; and to the east by the New York state line and a small portion of Warren County, PA.

The City of Erie was incorporated as a borough in 1905, became a city in 1851, and is known as Pennsylvania’s “Flagship City”. The county’s first industry was lumber milling. Erie Iron Mill was established in 1833, and Erie became a major industrial center by the mid-1800’s. Today, Erie County is a major center for plastics, metal working, and machine shops. Manufacturing remains strong in the county today, with nearly ¼ of all non-farm workers employed in the industry. The county is a major plastics manufacturing base and has more than 500 diverse manufacturing companies. The county (and city) maintains strong connections to the banks of Lake Erie as well. Millions of dollars have been invested in the waterfront to ensure that the area continues to play a pivotal role in the growth of the area.

A map showing the geographic boundaries of the proposed community is included at the end of this section.

Common Bond

The supplemental information presented at the end of this section provides evidence that the Erie County area is a well-defined community. We will show that the county is a political jurisdiction, there are several resident interaction points and opportunities, and information showing that there are numerous major organizations and clubs that serve Erie County residents. Due to the area’s economy being highly dependent on the industry, residents of Erie County have been severely affected by technological advancement and industry decline in recent years.

Erie County is a defined political jurisdiction and is governed by a seven-member county council and a county executive. There are also several countywide boards, committees, and commissions serving Erie County that unite the residents as a community. The Erie Area Council of Governments serves the proposed community and is comprised of representatives from the individual municipalities in the Erie County area. U.S. Representative Phil English represents Erie County in the 21st District and does represent all of Erie County as a U.S. Congressman.

About Erie County, Pennsylvania

Located at the northwest corner of the Pennsylvania, Erie County is about a two-hour drive from Pittsburgh, Cleveland or Buffalo. Erie County government services provide an infrastructure for the counties 275,572 residents. The County manages a $137,355,087 budget. Primary revenue sources include: federal, state and municipal grants, $87,874,345; county real estate taxes, $38,955,000; and charges for services, $8,867,829. This funds the operation of numerous services including courts, criminal justice, human services, libraries, and public health and safety. The County Courthouse located at 140 West Sixth Street, Erie, Pennsylvania is open Monday through Friday, 8:30 A.M. until 4:30 P.M. The County has a Home Rule Charter form of government. Home Rule Charter establishes an executive branch headed by the County Executive and a legislative branch with a 7 person council. County Council meetings are held the first and third Tuesday of the month, Room 117 of the courthouse, starting at 7:00 P.M. Periodically meetings are held at municipal buildings.

Erie has been a manufacturing center since before the Industrial Revolution. Today Erie County still has 28% of its workforce in manufacturing. County Executive Lynch says "this area has teetered on the brink of becoming one of the major growth areas in the United States. I believe that the 21st century will see that growth flower and flourish."

While also a major center for the plastics industry, tourism is the second largest industry. Presque Isle, with its seven miles of sandy beaches and rated by National Geographic as one of the best places in the world for viewing sunsets, attracts millions of visitors. At the bayfront you can visit the restored US Brig Niagara, maritime museum, multistoried observation tower and other waterfront developments. Away from the lake you can enjoy scenic pastureland, covered bridges and vineyards.

Erie County luminaries include:

- Harry T. Burleigh, composer, arranger and musician who wrote Low, Sweet Chariot
- Caryn Kadavy, Olympic figure skater
- Paul Weitz, astronaut
- Bruce Baumgartner, Olympic wrestler

Erie County and the Tri-State area is far more than the bayfront and the lake. There are special communities along the escarpment that merit your attention.

Welcome to the beautiful Lake Erie Region. It extends beyond the City of Erie and the many municipalities of Erie County to include near neighbors in New York State, Ohio, and the Pennsylvania counties of Crawford, Venango and Warren. The region has much to offer.

With the natural resources available and a ready workforce, industries of all kinds developed here and continue to do so. New bayfront development is planned; a new gateway is in the future. Incubator programs for small businesses are located throughout the region.

A myriad of advanced educational facilities and technical institutes are here. One of the oldest colleges in the United States -- Allegheny -- is in this region, as well as branches of state universities from each of the three states. The historic Chautauqua Movement began here and continues even stronger today.

Vast religious choices are available and ethnic groups from around the world are located here.

Cultural activities go far beyond expectation in every season of the year and can be found throughout the region. Recreation includes everything from sailing to skiing. Glorious sunsets can be seen over hills, in valleys, and over watery horizons. Each season brings its own special events and beauty. Fall colors in the region are especially brilliant.

The history is exciting. After the Native Americans, three countries claimed parts of the region: France, Great Britain and the United States. Much of the land was settled as a result of payments to Revolutionary War soldiers for their services. While the region was in French hands George Washington slept here. At one time canals traversed the area, shipping via the lake was abundant and then great

Erie, Pennsylvania takes great pride as the home of the U.S. Brig NIAGARA. This reconstruction of Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry's flagship in the battle of Lake Erie was completed in the summer of 1990, and since then Niagara has embarked on an ambitious program of sailing and historic interpretation. As an ambassador of Erie and the State of Pennsylvania, Niagara has visited numerous ports on the Great Lakes and the Atlantic Seaboard giving thousands of visitors an opportunity to share in this unique piece of history. When in port, NIAGARA is open for guided tours and has an active daysailing program.

Peninsula in the fall

Outdoors

Community Events

The outdoor experience in the Erie area is neither limited to the splendor of Presque Isle State Park nor constrained by the seasons. The area's unique mix of lakeside, riverine and mountain environments, of city and countryside attractions, virtually guarantees that at least someone somewhere in the region is having fun in the great outdoors. Whether for scuba diving or snorkeling along Pennsylvania's 40-mile Lake Erie shore, hiking through the region's many nature preserves and green spaces, or bicycling along the area's quiet country roads, Erie is a great place to start an adventure.

2001 Golf Guide

Raccoon Creek attract anglers from Pennsylvania, Ohio, Ontario and beyond for classic game fish species such as yellow perch, walleye, steelhead trout, bass, northern pike, and muskellunge. And the fishing doesn't stop when the water freezes: The action just moves from the rivers and streams to the ice fishing huts that dot Presque Isle Bay in the deep months.

Erie's proximity to the mountainous region of western New York also makes it a viable point of departure for ski trips to world-class ski resorts such as Peek 'N Peak, where winter sport enthusiasts will find great facilities for downhill and cross-country skiing, snowboarding, snowshoeing and the always essential hot toddy by a roaring fire. A more rugged cross-country skiing experience can be had at any one of the 20 state game lands in the county, none of which is more than a 40-minute drive from Erie.

Presque Isle State Park

Presque Isle named a top 20 fishing spot by Field & Stream! [\[Read More...\]](#)

Four million visitors are drawn every year to Presque Isle State Park's beaches, natural beauty and bountiful recreational opportunities. Most of these visitors come to the park for swimming and sunbathing at its seven miles of guarded, sandy beaches, which have earned the park a place in the nation's "Top 100 Swimming Holes" listed by Condé Nast Traveler magazine. But almost a million visitors per year come to Presque Isle to do other things at all times of the year, and you'll be surprised at how much solitary, open space can be found in the park's extensive wilderness areas and on its 21 miles of recreational and hiking trails.

Since about three-quarters of the people who come to Presque Isle do so to swim and sunbathe, however, the best first stop is naturally the beach. All of the park's beaches are ideally suited to families with small children, but family facilities are perhaps best at Beaches 1, 6, 7 and 11, where the water is fairly shallow and visitors will find plenty of parking, picnic tables, grills and sanitary/changing facilities. Those wanting a more rugged experience may wish to visit Beach 9 or Budny Beach on the park's north shore, where the beaches are wider and the surf is deeper, and where visitors have plenty of room to play volleyball, fly kites, launch windsurfers, scuba dive, have a picnic, take a long walk on the beach and, of course, swim. Presque Isle's beaches are open from Memorial Day through Labor Day, and see their heaviest use from late June through August.

If you like water sports and fishing you've come to the right place. Presque Isle Bay and the park's many ponds, bays and piers attract anglers for bass, walleye, northern pike and crappie. The more adventurous can set sail for Lake Erie, where they'll find some of the best game fishing on the lower Great Lakes. Four launching areas are available in the park for both non-powered and registered powered craft. If you don't have a boat but still wish to take to the water, a variety of powered and non-powered craft are available from a rental concession on the park's southeast shore. Powered craft are not permitted in the park's numerous ponds and internal lagoons, but you'll find that those delicate ecosystems are best experienced from the ease and quiet of a canoe anyway.

Anglers and tourists alike are drawn to Misery Bay on the park's south shore, where the Perry Monument serves as an important scenic and historic backdrop. Misery Bay is named after the hardships endured by the men of Perry's naval squadron, who wintered here 1813-1814 after the crucial Battle of Lake Erie in September 1813. Crew who died during that severe winter were interred through holes in the ice of adjacent Graveyard Pond, which visible to the north from the Misery Bay Bridge.

Misery bay is a great place to drop off any hikers in your party. Look for the head of the Sidewalk Trail and arrange to meet them in 40-50 minutes at Lighthouse Beach. This trail treats hikers to an easy 1.25-mile walk through an environmentally sensitive wetland on a concrete-surfaced trail that skirts Ridge Pond, a beach or sandpit pond created by a former shoreline and which once lay very close to the lake. Visitors to this area will experience one of the best-preserved and most extensive wetlands in Pennsylvania. Rendezvous at the Presque Isle Lighthouse, built in 1872, where you can also get a good close look at the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers breakwater project, designed to protect Presque Isle's sensitive environment from erosion.

The more energetic visitor to Presque Isle should consider trekking the paved Multipurpose National Recreational Trail, a 10-mile long paved surface that is popular with bicyclists, in-line skaters, joggers and walkers of all speeds and styles. This trail, which conforms to Americans with Disabilities Act accessibility standards, encompasses the entire park and affords splendid views of Presque Isle Bay, Lake Erie and the park's dazzlingly diverse ecological zones.

Many different species of plants and wildlife inhabit these ecological zones, which range from shoreline to sub-climax forest systems. Presque Isle's location along the Atlantic Flyway and its ecological diversity support over 320 recorded species of migrating and indigenous birds, many of which are listed as species of special concern, making the park a bird watcher's paradise. Informative displays and programs detailing these and other natural wonders can be seen at the Stull Interpretive Center, a facility operated by the Pennsylvania Department of Conservation and Natural Resources (call 814-833-0351 for more information). Also located in this facility is The Nature Shop, which offers books, artwork, field guides and other nature-related items for sale and whose proceeds benefit Presque Isle State Park.

The fun activities at Presque Isle don't stop at summer's end. The park is very popular with winter visitors, who frequent the park for ice fishing, ice boating and ice skating. Part of the Multipurpose Trail is plowed throughout the winter for hikers, and another part is left unplowed for cross-country skiers. The winter months also provide an opportunity to see the lakeshore's impressive ice dunes, formed by lake ice, wave surge and freezing spray.

If you're just passing through or otherwise making a short visit to Erie, Presque Isle is also nicely viewed from your car window. For locals and other frequent visitors, car jaunts to Presque Isle are a way of life, starting in childhood with fishing trips and family picnics on the beach and continuing through life to trips with the grandchildren. Presque Isle enthusiasts have been doing it this way since the first paved road was laid through the park back in 1924.

Erie County (population 276,000) was created on March 12, 1800, from part of Allegheny County and named for Lake Erie, which in turn had been named for the Indian tribe of the same name. It was attached to Crawford County until 1803. Erie, the county seat, was so named because it was Pennsylvania's port on Lake Erie. It was laid out in 1795, incorporated as a borough on March 29, 1805, and as a city on April 14, 1851.

Erie, the county seat, is the state's third largest city. Downtown Erie, there are new developments taking place every day. There is a new bicentennial observation tower that affords great views of Presque Isle Bay and the city. Uptown Erie, many new stores, superstores, outlets, restaurants and hotels along with the giant

Growth and Development

GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT

Industrial | Downtown | Waterfront | Commercial | Infrastructure
Retail | Institutional | Residential

Industrial - Bush Industries, with Phase I of a one-million-square-foot facility, a distribution center, completed, and an adjacent manufacturing plant under construction. New industrial parks are expanding, and many small industrial businesses are growing. For example, Erie Brewing has substantially expanded at the new Michael J. Veshecco Industrial Park, 12th and Greengarden. Even parts of the developing Bayfront remain industrial. Metro Marine has taken over the former Litton shipbuilding facility and has expanded from ship repair to the building of double-hulled ships.

Downtown - Erie residents can resume the tradition of meeting "under the clock" at Erie's landmark Boston Store, where renovations are complete. The building, which sat idle for a number of years, now has ground floor commercial/retail space and large apartments on the top five floors. The Erie Area Chamber of Commerce opened its offices in Boston Store Place on July 1, 1999. See the architectural award-winning Jerry Uht Ballpark, seating 6,000 people for Erie SeaWolves home games. Many games were a sellout in the initial 1995-1998 seasons, and 1999 brought AA-class baseball to Erie. Nearby is an attractive new parking ramp to accommodate renewed downtown growth and the new ballpark. It is connected to the Renaissance Centre, formerly the Baldwin Building, and houses the Erie Parking Authority offices and a restaurant. Also, see a photo of the remodeled, full-service Avalon Hotel with its additional ballroom. The 5,000-square-foot Niagara Ballroom and the adjacent enclosed Niagara Courtyard were opened in 1999. See the beautifully-restored Union Station. The renovated Palace Business Centre, the former Palace Hardware office building, is now a thriving combination of businesses and apartments. The same developer has been remodeling the Renaissance Centre, and occupancy is up from 30 to 60 percent and growing. See the Renaissance Centre website. Another developer, who owns the Modern Tool Square on lower State St., remodeled several years ago, is now renovating the huge old Lovell Manufacturing facility as Lovell Place, and other parts of the State St.-Parade St. neighborhood just south of 12th Street. Among the tenants in the new Lovell Place are Matthew's Trattoria Italian Restaurant and the Erie Book Store. Included in this restoration is the 32,000-square-foot building on 14th and State, now home to the popular Jr.'s Last Laugh Comedy Club.

Other downtown restoration and development work and new construction includes Erie's landmark Warner Theatre, a part of the Civic Center complex, which will be undergoing a multi-million dollar renovation. See the Erie Civic Center website. See Gannon University's Webcam at the university's new Waldron Campus Center. Gannon's new archway over seventh St. is now in place. See the Federal Building on North Park Row with Erie's former main library in the background. The century-old library is a national historic landmark, and will be renovated by the federal government for expansion of federal operations, which, along with the former Isaac Baker store, will take up the entire square block. The library was replaced by the new Raymond M. Blasco, MD, Memorial Library on the Bayfront. Both the Woolworth Building and the Purcell Hardware/BusyBee buildings on State Street are being renovated and restored. First National Bank of Pa. completed a new building next to the former FNB Building in Jan. 1998. It is now occupied by Blue Cross/Blue Shield. National City Bank, formerly Integra Bank, next door to the Warner Theatre, has been remodeled and expanded. PNC Bank has been remodeling the former Marine Bank building as well. See the Marquette Savings Bank on Peach Street, which underwent renovation and a major expansion, replacing a number of old storefronts. In the distance is Gannon University's new A.J. Palumbo Academic Center, the renovated former Carlisle Store. The former National Fuel Building has been purchased and is being renovated by Northwest Savings Bank, and National Fuel has moved to 1100 State St. The Woolworth Building on State St. is being renovated for retail and law offices. The Erie County Employees Credit Union is now in the old Exchange Building at State St. and North Park Row.

Waterfront - The Waterworks complex was recently expanded with a new administrative building. New on the Bayfront in the last few years is Bayview Commons with the Blasco Memorial Library and the new Erie Maritime Museum (opened in May 1998), and the Hirt Auditorium, along with a new berth for the reconstructed and seaworthy U.S. Brig Niagara. Also, see the new Bicentennial Tower on renovated Dobbins Landing at the foot of State Street. Catch the panoramic view (courtesy Helen Rindosh) from the 187-foot observation tower, which opened in Oct. 1996. It is now the Bayfront focal point, overlooking the city and beautiful Presque Isle Bay. Dinner cruises on the Victorian Princess sternwheeler leave Dobbins Landing. Planned also for the Bayfront are a new, 50,000-sq. ft. intermodal transportation center, with construction begun in early 2000, plus a new hotel, convention center, and retail complex. The panoramic view shows the area for new development in the open area between the Maritime Museum and State Street. Also, the Waterfront Restaurant has announced a $3 million expansion, and Shakespier's, on the Bayfront at Liberty, plans to expand as well. The Liberty Street Pier is now home to a park and ride facility. Liberty Park and an amphitheater are able to accommodate 5,000 people for outdoor shows.

Commercial - In addition to the many restorations, new office buildings are being built in Erie as well. See the handsome 100 State Street steel and glass structure overlooking the bay (the photo is looking south across Wolvarine Park from lower State Street boardwalk), the Bayview Office Park on the Bayfront Parkway, and some of the Erie Insurance Group's complex of office buildings. The School District of the City of Erie Employees' Credit Union has built its fourth office on the Bayfront Parkway and Greengarden Rd.

Infrastructure - The Bayfront Parkway extension off of I-79 is now being extended around the east side of Erie. The latest section goes back up to E. 6th St. near Wayne, and the parkway will connect with I-90 to complete the loop in several years. Peach Street (Route 19) has been widened to accommodate the substantial increase in traffic flow with the boom in retail business. On the west side, a new east-west route connecting Pittsburgh Avenue and Peninsula Drive has been built using a new stretch of road connecting West 16th Street with West 15th Street near the expanded Yorktown Centre shopping plaza. A project to realign West 38th St. near the Erie Zoo is also in the works. Also, water lines are being extended to accommodate current and anticipated industrial, commercial, and residential growth. Erie International Airport is planning a $24 million extension of the airport runway and a $15 million renovation of the terminal building, including a $1.3 million baggage area upgrade which has been completed. A light rail system, using existing railroad tracks between the airport and downtown, is in longer-range plans.

Retail - Erie has two huge new plazas off of upper Peach Street near I-90, and a third one, Erie Marketplace Plaza, anchored by a 125,333-square-foot Target store, opened in the fall of 2000. A major expansion of the giant Millcreek Mall, the Millcreek Pavilion, is in progress, expanding the mall to I-79. A new Ames Department Store has opened as one anchor, and Regal Cinema is planning a 12-screen movie theater there. A new plaza including Old Navy, Border Books, SteinMart and Michael's Crafts has opened on the south end, along with three new restaurants, the Outback Steakhouse, Don Pablo's Mexican Kitchen, and Max & Ermas. Outlet stores at the mall include the Blair Factory Outlet and Burlington Coat Factory (in the former Dahlkemper Building). The former Lazarus anchor has been completely renovated as an Elder-Beerman store. At the plazas on upper Peach Street, Circuit City and PetsMart have joined Home Depot, Wal-Mart, Lowes, Media Play, and the 17-screen Tinseltown. Wal-Mart has added its second store off of W. 26th Street, just west of the airport. In the West Erie Plaza, deep discount retailer Gabriels has taken over the former Lazarus store. Major new supermarkets have been built, and stand-alone stores have been constructed by Barnes & Noble, and many others. Drug store giants Rite Aid, CVS, and Eckerd have been on a building spree in Erie.

The number of motels is steadily expanding, including the Residence Inn by Marriott, a Courtyard by Marriott, Microtel, Best Western, and a Hampton Inn. Other hotels, such as the downtown Avalon Hotel, the Bel-Aire, the Holiday Inn, the Ramada Inn, and Motel 6 (the former Howard Johnson) have experienced major modernization. Some of the newer restaurants are Applebees, TGIFriday, Bob Evans, Cracker Barrel, Damon's, the Outback Steakhouse, Don Pablo's and Max & Erma's. Most recently opened at Keystone Plaza are Fazoli's Italian Restaurant and Panera Bakery/Cafe, and a new Quaker Steak & Lube as well as Valentino's Grand Italian Buffet have opened on upper Peach Street. Kellie's Sugar 'n Spice has moved into the restaurant area of the historic Eagle Hotel in nearby Waterford.

Institutional - Modern schools and healthcare facilities have become a hallmark of the Erie area. The latest schools, Erie's new East High and Millcreek's Belle Valley Elementary and Walnut Creek Middle Schools, are world-class and have won various awards. Saint Vincent Health Center recently opened a new building housing both critical care areas and outpatient services, and Hamot Medical Center has a new, free-standing $9.3-million Surgery Center on fast track for completion at 200 State Street on a former parking lot site. The Regional Cancer Center is one of the first free-standing community cancer care centers in the country. The Millcreek Community Hospital and the Shriners Hospital for Children have completed major building projects. MetroHealth has completed its new "medical mall" development at Zuck and Zimmerly Roads with independent and assisted-living residences, Village Surgi-Center, and a blend of retail, health-related, and commercial businesses. A new Millcreek senior center is planned there as well.

The nationally known Dr. Gertrude A. Barber Center on Erie's east side plans to create a National Center for education, research, and state-of-the-art services for individuals with disabilities and their families. Groundbreaking is set for a 45,000-square-foot facility just north of the main campus, with opening planned for summer 2001. The Lake Erie College of Osteopathic Medicine (LECOM), founded in 1992 and on its way to becoming one of the nation's largest osteopathic schools, has announced a $15-million expansion-a four-floor, 95,000-square-foot addition behind the existing medical school building on West Grandview.

Residential - Whole new neighborhoods of beautiful homes have been built, as well as luxurious condos on the Bayfront bluff, and even on a pier on Presque Isle Bay. A number of new subdivisions have been built or are under construction. Attractive apartments are available in new construction and in restored landmark buildings. Even the city is getting its share of new residential construction. See our Real Estate webpage, which includes a listing of agencies and links to the MLS directory of homes, courtesy of the Greater Erie Board of Realtors.

Three Organizations Merge to Create a Single Vision

By Anne-Marie Welsh

As we reported last month, members of the Erie Area Chamber of Commerce, the Erie Conference on Community Development and Erie Insight have merged into a wholly new organization: the Erie Regional Chamber and Growth Partnership.

It is a very visible step in an important process which has been evolving in the northwest Pennsylvania business community for months and years.

No single event precipitated the actual merger. The stars seemed to align as government leadership made a new commitment to collaboration, as studies indicated that change in the region's economic base was inevitable, and as the Erie Community Foundation stepped forward with seed money to ensure the financial stability of a new organization fully devoted to economic development.

This month, the Communicator presents a look at how the Erie Regional Chamber and Growth Partnership is gleaning the strengths from each of the three groups that were merged into one. This effort is no mere reshuffling of the cards. The Erie Regional Chamber and Growth Partnership (ERCGP) is more than the sum of its parts. Its enormous potential will likely have an effect on the economic climate in northwest Pennsylvania for generations to come.

"We needed to do what was best for the community." This phrase was repeated often in a series of interviews with those involved in facilitating the rise of the ERCGP. Egos and agendas were left behind.

"We reflected on this periodically and marveled at the many things which could have gotten in the way of the merger but didn't," says Jim Dible, vice president and general manager at the Times Publishing Company and vice chairman of the transition board established to oversee the merger. Dible, the last chairman of the board of the Erie Area Chamber of Commerce, says he and BJ Lechner, the last chairman of the board of the Erie Conference on Community Development, were fortunate that executive committees and directors consistently made decisions in the best interest of moving the community forward. The same held true with leadership at Erie Insight.

What new aspects will the ERCGP bring to northwest Pennsylvania? According to the transition document written for the three founding organizations, the merger creates an opportunity to synthesize the business community's voice and to maximize impact in regard to economic development, regional business climate, and regional quality of life. The ERCGP will also promote an organized, coordinated and aggressive approach to business recruitment and retention.

"We've never had an organization responsible for the solicitation of new companies," says Lechner, division manager of the Dana Corporation and president of the ERCGP transition board. Carl Carlotti, vice president of National Fuel Gas Distribution Corporation and treasurer of the transition board, agrees.

"This kind of effort is a long process," he observes. "You have to have the infrastructure ready to support the retention and recruitment of new companies, and that means everything from the airport, roads, and energy to quality of life issues. Then you have to have a strong network of relationships in order to entice new businesses."

Carlotti points to the region's recent success in making the short list of communities considered as possible headquarters for NFG. He believes that whether or not the company chooses to relocate in Erie, the experience gained working on the issue in an organized and unified manner has served notice that Erie is worthy of being considered as a serious player.

The ERCGP transition document calls for the organization to develop targeted research on prospects and to build relationships with site selection firms and consultants.

John Masterson, a financial advisor with Merrill Lynch and the fourth and final person making up the merger transition board, sees another positive aspect in the creation of the ERCGP.

ABOUT ERIE COUNTY CONVENTION CENTER AUTHORITY

Established in 1977 as the Erie Civic Center Authority, this non-profit municipal authority manages a four-facility entertainment complex that includes the Warner Theatre, the Louis J. Tullio Arena, Jerry Uht Park and the Bayfront Convention Center. The nine-member volunteer Board of Directors, made up of Erie business people and community leaders, serve five-year terms and are appointed by the Mayor, county executives and the Governor. The mission of the Authority is to provide world class convention facilities and entertainment venues presenting diverse performing arts and sporting events for county and regional residents and their visiting families and friends, meeting and convention visitors, travelers and vacationers.

The Civic Center complex began with the acquisition of the Warner Theatre. In 1976, Cinemette Corporation of America sold the Warner Theatre to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Upon hearing of the intended plans to sell the theatre, the late Mayor Louis J. Tullio saw the importance of saving the Warner from planned demolition. With the assistance of the Commonwealth, he took it upon himself to negotiate a successful purchase of the building from private interests. Some critical improvements including a new roof, restoration of lighting fixtures and rewiring of the house front and foyer areas were then made. The cornerstone of the Erie Civic Center Complex and the arts community was laid.

Upon receiving fiscal and physical management responsibilities for the Warner Theatre, the Erie Civic Center Authority began investigating the feasibility of building a multi-purpose facility. Appealing to the state for financial assistance, the Authority acquired property from 8th to 9th Streets and French to Holland. On June 7, 1983, after three years of construction, the Louis J. Tullio Arena opened its doors. Erie became a star on the concert tour routes, and the revitalization of downtown Erie began.

In 1994, a core group of community leaders known as Team Erie and the Erie Civic Center requested help to fund another major redevelopment project in downtown Erie. The project was the construction of a $9 million class AA ballpark to replace the abandoned Sears/Roebuck. In 1995, the ballpark opened with a short-season class A baseball team and in 1999, a class AA ballpark was acquired.

The fourth and biggest development project in Erie's history was given the go-ahead in 2001 when Governor Tom Ridge and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania presented the Erie County Convention Center Authority with $32 million to fund the Bayfront Convention Center. The factors laid the groundwork for the successful launch of this project: tremendous community support from local leaders and groups, a newly implemented hotel/motel tax, and the results from an economic development study. The overall development on the Bayfront will include a convention center that features a flexible ballroom, banquet and meeting rooms to accommodate groups of up to 1,000, a hotel/restaurant complex, and parking facilities. The new complex is scheduled for the spring of 2005 and is estimated to bring in over $15 million in new revenues to the region.

Section 4 - Community Action Plan

Erie School Employees FCU is well positioned to continue to provide high-quality, low-cost financial services to Erie County residents. The credit union offers a wide range of financial products and services and provides electronic services for remote access and delivery as well. These channels, along with planned additional delivery channels, will allow the community residents to conduct financial business in whichever form they choose. The following sections outline the current operations base (along with planned future services) that will allow Erie School Employees FCU to successfully serve the community.

Credit union marketing materials, products and services, and biographies on the staff and board are located at the end of this section.

Physical Facilities

Erie School Employees currently maintains three (3) office locations within the proposed community. The main office is located at 1109 East 38th Street in Erie; the East Erie office is located at 2436 Buffalo Road in Erie; and the West Erie (Bayfront) office is located at 1005 Greengarden Road in Erie. In addition to these office locations, we are part of the Share Service Center network and a service center office is located in the

(b)(4)

(b)(4)

Drive-thru and ATM services are available at each branch location. We have also included a listing of "No Surcharge" ATM's in the Erie County community at the end of this section.

Electronic Service Delivery Options

As electronic delivery of financial services continues to increase, these services will play an important role in our ability to serve the proposed community. Erie School Employees FCU recognizes the importance of these delivery channels, offers a variety of alternatives to meet member needs, and plans to continue to enhance existing, and add new services to better serve the proposed community.

- ATM's. Erie School Employees FCU deploys fifteen (15) ATM's in the Erie County community area. Twelve of these machines are cash dispensers only, and three (one at each branch location) are full service machines. As members of the "CU Dollar" non-surcharge alliance, members of ESE FCU have access to an additional seven ATM's throughout the community. A listing of these surcharge-free locations is available from a link on the Erie School Employees FCU web site, and provided at the end of this section.
- VISA Check Card. Members can access their accounts using the ESE FCU VISA Check card. The VISA check card also allows members to purchase goods or pay for services anywhere VISA is accepted worldwide and allows ATM access anywhere the VISA logo is indicated. This card offers the convenience of carrying a credit card, without having to incur end of month billing, as funds are deducted from the members' credit union share draft account automatically.
- Direct Deposit/Payroll Deduction. Erie School Employees FCU offers direct deposit of members' net pay or a specified allotment to the members' credit union account at no charge. Members may also distribute the allocations to savings, share draft, IRA, loan, or any member-specified credit union account.

The site provides membership and loan application capabilities, as well as home banking and electronic bill pay functions.

The Erie School Employees FCU is a member-owned, not for profit organization. The credit union is striving to provide desired financial services to its members to the best of its ability by offering competitive rates on all services while maintaining growth and financial stability.

ATM/Check Cards

SUPERSIZE our Checking Accounts by offering the MasterMoney ATM/CHECK CARD, also known as a debit card. The ATM/CHECK CARD is the premiere Check Card because it is accepted at over 16 million merchants worldwide. In fact, you can use your ATM/CHECK CARD anywhere you see the MasterCard Logo. The ATM/CHECK CARD is designed to simplify your life by not hassling you about ID and a drivers license--you simply present your card and sign your name where indicated. Keep your receipt and deduct your transaction from your checkbook. It's that easy! The ATM/CHECK CARD works like your checkbook-only it's easier, faster, cheaper and more convenient than writing a check.

Did you know the ATM/CHECK CARD also replaces your STAR Card? It's like combining the convenience of your Checkbook and your STAR Card all into one compact card. You can even make withdrawals at any ATM displaying the STAR, PLUS or MasterCard Logo and simply record your receipt in your checkbook when you get home.

Are you worried about balancing your checkbook? Don't worry, each transaction you perform whether at an ATM or at a Merchant, is recorded on your monthly statement. If you tend to run your checkbook a little closer to the vest, you may want to apply for the convenient Overdraft Line of Credit.

A little nervous about how much power your ATM/CHECK CARD carries? Don't be. Your ATM/CHECK CARD is protected by two anti-fraud neural networks.

To receive an application for the ATM/CHECK CARD or the STAR Card, which allows you access to cash at ATMs and point of sale transactions, simply contact our office or send an e-mail to MemberServices@esefcu.org today.

Exam date ratios are annualized. (2) Prior year ratios are based on estimates.

This ratio relies on the maturity distribution of investments reported per 5300 instructions. Thus, the maturity distribution could be based on the repricing interval and not the actual maturity of the investment. The exam date ratio is calculated consistent with prior years.

(4) For all years prior to 2000, net worth includes donated equity, which is not a regulatory component of net worth.

(5) Exam Date ratio: Net Charge Offs is YTD Net Losses plus (Average Monthly Net Losses from the prior year, multiplied by the number of months needed to equal a 12 month period). Example: If the exam date is 3/31/2001, the net charge off ratio for the exam date is: (YTD Net Losses) + (Average Monthly Net Losses for the year 2000, multiplied by 9). This is necessary to calculate 12 months worth of charge-offs with the available examination data.

Dear Cynthia:

After submitting our application for a Community Charter, it was brought to our attention that we will have a FOM overlap restriction of 18 months placed upon us as a condition of granting us the Community Charter.

We understand the current FOM provisions allow for this overlap restriction based on the fact that the Manufacturer's Association Employer/Employee Federal Credit Union has not been in existence more than two years. The current FOM of this credit union encompasses 17 counties and over 5500 member companies in those counties. Over 1600 of those companies reside and do business in the county of Erie. Their overall member companies increase, on average, 40 new member companies per month. Based on these facts, we do not feel that our Community Charter will hinder their ability to grow.

Our current SEG base overlaps the member companies of the Manufacturer's Association in great length. We feel that since we have a long existing relationship with a number of those companies that we should be able to continue serving them well into the future. Informing potential members who want to join our credit union that they are prohibited from joining our credit union, because of where they are employed, would be detrimental to our purpose of obtaining a Community Charter not to mention potentially causing the businesses to sever their relationship with the Manufacturer's Association in order to allow their employees access to the Erie School Employees FCU.

The negative implications of turning members away will send a message to the community that we are not a true Community Credit Union and that our advertisements stating eligibility of live, work, worship or attend school in Erie County are deceptive. Disclosing that we cannot accept members who work at the 1600 Erie County businesses would be a logistical nightmare.

It is not our intention to lure away current members of the Manufacturer's Association Employer/ Employees FCU. However, it is our intention to be able to provide service to potential members who choose to come to us for financial services.

We are asking for your assistance in removing the current FOM overlap provision and allow us to serve all potential members within Erie County as part of our Community Charter.

Sincerely,

Norb Kaczmarek

Dear Mr. Kaczmarek:

We have performed a preliminary review of your proposal and documentation requesting conversion to a community charter serving persons who live, work, worship or attend school in Erie County. Before we can fully process your request, we need information regarding overlapped credit unions within the proposed community.

You have identified 55 credit unions located in Erie County. In order to determine the potential impact your proposed conversion will have on these overlapped credit unions, you will need to request certain information and statistical data from each credit union. Specifically, we need the following data to be gathered:

- 1) current members within geographical area;
- 2) potential members within geographical area;
- 3) total current members in credit union;
- 4) total potential members in credit union;
- 5) total shares of members in geographical area; and
- 6) total loans of members in geographical area.

A sample survey is enclosed, which should be used to obtain all of the required information from overlapped credit unions in the proposed community. If you have any questions, please contact Insurance Analyst Claudia Yale in this office.

Sincerely,

Jane A. Walters
Regional Director
