

The National Archives at Boston presents

TEACHING WITH DOCUMENTS

Original Documents and Teaching Strategies

Free workshops for Educators K-16. First & Third Thursdays, 6 - 8 P.M.

- Oct. 4, 2012 America Votes: the Election is a Huge Teaching Opportunity
The Constitution, Electoral College, Election History, and tracking Election 2012. Everything you need!
- Oct 18, 2012 They Came From Italy: Italian Ethnic History & Genealogy
- Nov. 1, 2012 Who Fired the Shot Heard Round The World?
They have now all been scanned: the depositions of witnesses to the Lexington Alarm. And how to use them.
- Nov 15, 2012 Finding Our Veterans: Researching the Military Records of American Veterans
- Dec. 6, 2012 Reimagining Equality: Stories of Gender, Race and Finding Home.
Prof. Anita Hill explores current affairs, social policy, her research, and our country. Book signing.
- Jan. 3, 2013 Applications of Research Methods. Required for PDPs. Learn to research with original documents.
- Jan 17, 2013 Public program TBA
- Feb. 7, 2013 Oh Freedom! They Emancipated Themselves (with a little help from their friends)
Boston's resistance to slavery and the struggle for freedom. Stories of courage, defiance, and ingenuity.
- Feb 20, 2013 10 A.M. Genealogy for Kids. Kids Gr. 3-8 and their chaperones explore family history.
- Feb 21, 2013 Public Program TBA
- Mar. 7, 2013 Rosa Parks Turns 100! Teaching Civil Rights via Common Core
Using records of Jackie Robinson, Rosa Parks, Ella Fitzgerald, the 369th Infantry Harlem Hellfighters in WWI.
- Mar 21, 2013 Public Program TBA
- Apr. 4, 2013 Local History: Rich resources for teaching & learning
The federal records of our own communities reveal much about the past and the present.
- Apr. 18, 2013 Patriots' Day Program.
- May 2, 2013 Immigration/Migration and American Identity
We are a tapestry, quilt, bouquet. The records of where we have been are in the National Archives.
- May 16, 2013 Public Program TBA
- Jun. 6, 2013 Application of Research Methods
Research the original documents at the National Archives.
- July 18, 2013 Introduction to Genealogy: the records tell the stories about our national life
Everything you need to get started.
- SUMMER INSTITUTE: Full-day weeklong program. PDP's and graduate credit available.
- July 22-26, 2013 Primarily Teaching: Original Documents and Classroom Strategies. Learn about resources, use original records. conduct original research; create materials for teaching & learning.

RESERVATIONS REQUIRED

- Call 866-406-2379 or email boston.archives@nara.gov.
- Visit online www.archives.gov/northeast/boston

To earn 10 PDPs

- Attend five 2-hour workshops.
- "Application of Research Methods" workshop is required.

NATIONAL ARCHIVES AT BOSTON ■ 380 TRAPELO ROAD*WALTHAM, MASSACHUSETTS

