

Lindsay King
Program Analyst
Headquarters

Ms. Lindsay King is an enrolled member of the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma. Prior to joining OTSG as a Program Analyst, Ms. King served as the ALN for the Nashville Area. There, Ms. King was responsible for implementing the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act (ISDEAA) and the Indian Health Care Improvement Act (IHCA) in partnership with the Tribes, nations, and Tribal Organizations. Ms. King also enjoyed working with Urban Indian programs as an Urban Coordinator for the Nashville Area. Ms. King's background also includes constructing Tribal shares tables, Table 4Fs, the CSC Shortfall Report, and funding requests for new federally recognized Tribes. She has a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Northeastern State University, in Tahlequah, OK, and has begun graduate school at George Washington University, Washington, D.C., pursuing a Master of Business Administration with an emphasis in Health Care Management.

