RE: TTB NOTICE NUMBER FOUR

May 17, 2003

Chief
Regulations and Procedures Division
Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau
Washington, D.C. 20091-0221

Dear Sir/Madam:

Retailers and consumers are being unfairly targeted by the TTB's proposed new regulations. These new regulations would ultimately deprive consumers of a product they enjoy and result in the demise of the businesses that sell this product. This is simply WRONG!

Retailers and consumers are already struggling in this weak economy. What is wrong with an agency that would impose additional hardship on these people? Small retailers depend on the sales of flavored malt beverages, and these regulations would extinguish those sales.

In opposing these new regulations you would be helping small retailers, saving thousands of jobs and millions of dollars in excise taxes for the federal government. Please do everything to you can, so that this proposal does not become policy.

Sincerely Yours,

Boota Singh
