RE: TTB NOTICE NUMBER FOUR

May 15, 2003

Chief
Regulations and Procedures Division
Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau
Washington, D.C. 20091-0221

Dear Alcohol Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau:

For most people in America, having a family is a number one priority. To have people that you can rely on and that rely on you. This is the way I feel about my small business. The people there rely on me and I rely on them. I do not wish to have to tell them they must leave my family because the TTB has caused it harm by passing a proposal for regulatory changes to a big income provider like flavored malt beverages.

Because of the tax increase that the TTB proposes to make, much of my income will vanish which means I cannot support my family. I will have to let members of my family go back out into the cold world and hope they survive. Jobs are not easy to come by and this is bad business to let them go after their good loyalty and service.

Do not break up my family. Say no to this proposal and let the American businesses thrive.

Sincerely,

Angela Langley
