Dear Chief, Regulations and Procedures Division:

Whether I enjoy drinking flavored malt beverages like Smirnoff Ice and Smirnoff Ice Triple Black or not is not important. I oppose the proposed regulation in TTB Notice No. 4 requiring a change in the way these drinks are made because: It's NONE of the Government's damn business what is in these beverages as long as the alcohol content is not '180', or something like that. BUTT OUT of private business or we will butt you out. The federal government should handle bigger problems like creating jobs and improving the economy, and considering the Bush Crime Family has now cost this country 3.7 million jobs, and they have raped this country further of it's wealth, I suggest you tend to Government business and stay out of the private sector where you do not belong. Understand? You damn will better.....
