Dear Sir/Madam:

RE: TTB Notice Number Four

I can say, unequivocally, that if the proposed rules change covering flavored malt beverages is passed into policy, I will have to shut my business down. Plain and simple, flavored malt beverages represent the most significant portion of my sales revenue. On top that, they open the door to a significant amount of additional purchases that my customers make when they buy their flavored malt beverages. My business, and probably far too many others like mine, will not survive this change in policy.

I don't want these new regulations. Nor do I want the loss of revenue, customers and employees that would ensue. I must ask you to make sure this proposal never reaches the point of being policy.

Regards,

Bailey Mc Coy
