RE: TTB Notice Number Four

To Whom It May Concern:

The proposed regulations on flavored malt beverages being considered by the TTB would be terrible for the economy. Current taxes and regulatory burdens are heavy enough. We should be finding ways to reduce these barriers to economic recovery. The last thing we need is more of them.

TTB Notice No. 4 would unfairly punish business people and consumers. The policy change it describes would do harm to both and be of benefit to no one.

I am asking you to please support the people who buy and sell flavored malt beverages and prevent what would be a calamitous change in policy for this industry. I appreciate your help.

Sincerely

Jeremiah Brown Jr
