Re: Notice # 4

I am a consumer of flavored malt beverages and I support the rule you have before you to limit the alcohol from flavors to no more than 0.5%. I have been under the impression that these products contained alcohol that was derived from the same process as that of beer. This may be my error but I believe that if you are calling a product a malt beverage than it should be a malt beverage.

I think this proposed rule will help eliminate confusion that many consumers, such as myself have had about these products, I urge you to adopt this proposal.
