RE: TTB Notice No.4

Dear Sir/Madarn:

I am writing this because I have great concerns for what the TTB is trying to do by trying to pass the regulatory changes of flavored malt beverages. This change will cause serious damage to not only my small business but also so many others.

The proposition that is placed before you has nationwide ramifications that cannot be ignored. A disease starts with the smallest germ and spreads through the whole body. This proposal is very much like a disease. It will cause damage to the smaller businesses and then move along until the whole nation is once again engulfed in another depression.

Unemployment will go up, welfare will go up, but income will go down. This is bad business for anyone.

Please say no to this regulatory change concerning flavored malt beverages and save us a pound of cure that will be needed later.
Sincerely,

Lenora Jordan
