RE: TTB NOTICE NUMBER FOUR
May 15, 2003

Chief
Regulations and Procedures Division
Alcohol. and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau
Washington, D.C. 20091-022.1

Dear Alcohol Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau:

Is the federal government out to destroy the economy? The new proposal that the TTB has introduced will change the regulations on flavored malt drinks, and I think that is absolutely absurd. I don't want to end up having to stand in an unemployment line because the TTB wants to 'enforce unnecessary regulations.

To my knowledge there is no need to safeguard the excise tax revenue; research has proven this to be so. So, why try to protect something that isn't in any danger? I ask that you please do something about the TTB's regulatory power. This power will, in the end, destroy jobs. Please vote against the new policy. I appreciate your help in this matter.

Sincerely,

Ann Leger
