RE: TTB Notice No.4

Dear Alcohol Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau:

Why is it that during a time when our economy is looking for stability, the government wants to pass a rules change that would cause severe damage to thousands of jobs? The TTB new rules would cause a great deal of damage to small retail businesses and to the flavored malt beverage industry.

There is no need to change the rules when they have been working fairly for more than 30 years. These taxes are unwarranted, and more importantly damaging to me and my industry.

I ask that you would consider the damage these new rules would cause. Please protect my rights and the rights of good, honest, Americans.

Sincerely,

Leroy Chappell
