NSF REGIONAL GRANTS CONFERENCE

Hosted by the University of Colorado at Boulder

Don't miss the second National Science Foundation Regional Grants Conference of fiscal year 2006 in Boulder, CO on March 13-14, 2006.

Optional FastLane workshops will be held on Sunday, March 12th.

Key representatives from the National Science Foundation as well as your colleagues – faculty, researchers and grant administrators – from colleges and universities from throughout the United States will participate.

This two-day conference is a must, especially for new faculty, researchers and administrators who want to gain key insight into a wide range of current issues at NSF including the state of current funding; new and current policies and procedures; and pertinent administrative issues. NSF program officers representing each NSF Directorate will be on hand to provide current information about specific funding opportunities and to answer your questions.

Highlights include:

- New programs and initiatives;
- Future directions and strategies for national science policy;
- Proposal preparation;
- NSF's merit review process;
- Crosscutting and special interest programs;
- Grant policy, compliance and accountability;
- Conflict of interest policies;
- Breakout sessions by discipline; and
- FastLane workshops;
