
Social Studies: Grade 8

United States History and Geography: Growth and Conflict

Students in grade eight study the ideas, issues, and events leading to framing of the Constitution through Reconstruction. After reviewing the development of America's democratic institutions, they learn about the challenges facing the new nation, with an emphasis on the causes, course, and consequences of the Civil War. They make connections between the rise of industrialization and contemporary social and economic conditions.

Social Studies Content Standards (SS):

Statements of what students should know and be able to do in a specific social studies grade level course. The standards provide a clear outline of content so that teachers can develop and align curriculum, instruction, and assessment. Components under each standard describe knowledge or skills and serve as progress indicators for gauging student's achievement of each standard.

Standard: 8SS1: Students understand the major events preceding the founding of the nation and relate their significance to the development of American Constitutional Democracy.

Components: 8SS1.a: Examine the Revolutionary period in United States history including political differences between England and the American Colonies.

8SS1.b: Analyze the philosophy of government expressed in the Declaration of Independence, with an emphasis on government as a means of securing individual rights

Example: key phrases such as "all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights"

8SS1.c: Explain how the American Revolution affected other nations, especially France.

8SS1.d: Interpret the nation's blend of civic republicanism, classical liberal principles, and English parliamentary traditions.

Standard: 8SS2: Students analyze the political principles underlying the U.S. Constitution and compare the enumerated and implied powers of the federal government.

Components: 8SS2.a: Appraise the significance of the Magna Carta, the English Bill of Rights, and the Mayflower Compact.

8SS2.b: Analyze the Articles of Confederation and the Constitution and the success of each in implementing the ideals of the Declaration of Independence.

8SS2.c: Evaluate the major debates that occurred during the development of the Constitution and their ultimate resolutions in such areas as shared power among institutions, divided state-federal power, slavery, the rights of individuals and states (later addressed by the addition of the Bill of Rights), and the status of the American Indian Nations under the commerce clause.

8SS2.d: Discuss the political philosophy underpinning the Constitution as specified in the Federalist Papers (authored by James Madison, Alexander Hamilton, and John Jay) and the role of such leaders as James Madison, George

Washington, Roger Sherman, Gouverneur Morris, and James Wilson in the writing and ratification of the Constitution.

Social Studies Skills (SSK):

The intellectual skills noted below are to be learned through, and applied to, the content standards for grade eight. They are to be assessed only in conjunction with these content standards. Students demonstrate the following intellectual reasoning, reflection, and research skills:

Chronological and Spatial Thinking

- skills:
- 8SSK1: Students explain how major events are related to one another in time.
 - 8SSK2: Students construct various time lines of key events, people, and periods of the historical era they are studying.
 - 8SSK3: Students use a variety of maps and documents to identify physical and cultural features of neighborhoods, cities, states, and countries and to explain the historical migration of people, expansion and disintegration of empires, and the growth of economic system.

Research, Evidence, and Point of View

- skills:
- 8SSK4: Students frame questions that can be answered by historical study and research.
 - 8SSK5: Students distinguish fact from opinion in historical narratives and stories.
 - 8SSK6: Students distinguish relevant from irrelevant information, essential from incidental information, and verifiable from unverifiable information in historical narratives and stories.
 - 8SSK7: Students assess the credibility of primary and secondary sources and draw sound conclusion from them.
 - 8SSK8: Students detect the different historical points of view on historical events and determine the context in which the historical statements were made (the questions asked, sources used, author's perspectives).

Historical Interpretation

- skills:
- 8SSK9: Students explain the central issues and problems from the past, placing people and events in a matrix of time and place.
 - 8SSK10: Students understand and distinguish cause, effect, sequence, and correlation in historical events, including the long-and short-term causal relations.
 - 8SSK11: Students explain the sources of historical continuity and how the combination of ideas and events explains the emergence of new patterns.

Social Studies: Grade 8

8SSK12: Students recognize the role of chance, oversight, and error in history.

skills: 8SSK13: Students recognize that interpretations of history are subject to change as new information is uncovered.

8SSK14: Students interpret basic indicators of economic performance and conduct cost-benefit analysis of economic and political issues.
