Soldier found dead

HEIDELBERG, GE (July 2, 2009) - A Soldier assigned to 54th Engineer Battalion was found dead at about 6:30 a.m., July 2nd, at Warner Barracks, Bamberg, Germany.

The Soldier was found unresponsive on the ground outside his barracks building by unit personnel during a routine security round. Medical personnel responded to the scene and he was pronounced dead at the scene by a German doctor.

The name of the deceased is being withheld pending notification of next of kin. The incident is under investigation by both German and U.S. Army authorities.
