

Biographical Information

George A. Fisher

Director, Department of Defense Programs
Oak Ridge National Laboratory
UT-Battelle, LLC
Oak Ridge, Tennessee

LTG (Ret) George A. Fisher is currently the Director, Department of Defense Programs, Oak Ridge National Laboratory. Prior to joining the Oak Ridge complex in August 1999, he served as a General Officer in the U. S. Army. His last assignment was as Commanding General, First United States Army, with responsibilities across the eastern 27 states. From 1995 to 1997, he was the Chief of Staff (Chief Operating Officer) of Forces Command, the Army's largest command, with major operational, training, deployment, and management duties. In 1995, LTG (Ret) Fisher served as the Commander of the U. S. led 34-nation Multi-National Force in Haiti. He has commanded the 25th Infantry Division and the Joint Readiness Training Center.

A 1964 graduate of the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, he also has a Masters Degree in Systems Analysis from the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, California. He has attended the Leadership at the Peak Program at the Center for Creative Leadership in Colorado Springs.

George and his wife, Brenda were raised in North Carolina. They have one daughter. Favorite activities include golf and distance running.

Contact Information

Post Office Box 2008, MS-6242
Oak Ridge, Tennessee 37831-6242
Telephone (865) 241-6635
Facsimile (865) 574-8814
Email: fishergajr@ornl.gov