RESPONSE TO ITEM 6, TRUTH IN TESTIMONY DISCLOSURE FORM

The answer to question 5 is YES. One of the entities which I am representing, Captive-Aire Systems, Inc. is a manufacturer of commercial kitchen ventilation equipment, which from time to time provides equipment for commercial kitchens which are located in military and other federal facilities. While we are aware of any direct federal grants or contracts awarded to Captive-Aire Systems, Inc., the Company regularly furnishes its equipment to food service equipment dealers and mechanical contractors who perform work under federal contracts or subcontracts. The equipment which Captive-Aire Systems furnishes includes fan products which will be discussed in my testimony.
