Suite 1440

Dear Mr. Buffett,

I appreciate and gladly accept your generous offer to match contributions that Republican Members of Congress make to pay down the federal debt. I voluntarily contribute 15% of my Congressional salary to pay down the debt, which amounted to $23,103.33 in 2011. My contribution in 2012 will be approximately $26,100.

Please let me know what documentation you require to fulfill the offer. In the hope that your offer is retroactive, I have enclosed a copy of my federal pay stub which reflects my after-tax contribution in 2011 to the United States Treasury.

Though we differ on tax policy, as fellow Americans and businessmen I know that we share this common bond: a deep concern over the state and trajectory of our country's finances. As we work together to find common ground, please know that I appreciate your participation – and that of every American who makes the effort to stay informed and engaged – in this critical discussion.

With kind regards, I remain

Yours in Freedom,

Scott Rigell
