1. REISSUANCE AND PURPOSE

This Directive:

1.1. 3.2. Permanent Duty Station (PDS). The term "Washington local commuting area" is not to be confused with "PDS," which is defined in the JFTR, volume I, and the JTR, volume II (references (b) and (c)), as the "designated post of duty or official station, the limits of which are the corporate limits of the city or town in which the employee is stationed. If not stationed in an incorporated city or town, the official station is the reservation, station, or established area, or, in the case of large reservations, the established subdivision thereof having definite boundaries within which the designated post of duty is located."

3.3. National Capital Region (NCR). For purposes of this Directive, and in accordance with Section 2674 of 10 U.S.C. (reference (d)), "NCR" is defined as the "geographic area located in the following boundaries:

4. POLICY

It is DoD policy that:

4.1. A local official, as defined in the JFTR, volume I, and the JTR, volume II, shall define the "local commuting area" in which the commuting public travels during normal business hours.

4.2. This Directive defines the "local commuting area" for personnel permanently or temporarily assigned to DoD activities located in the NCR, and for whom some other local official has not defined the "local commuting area."

4.3. Official travel in the local commuting area need not be authorized by issuance of travel orders.

4.4. This Directive should not be read to preclude the issuance of travel orders, reimbursement of travel expenses, and payment of per diem in applicable circumstances, when permitted by JFTR, volume I, and JTR, volume II (references (b) and (c)).

5. RESPONSIBILITIES

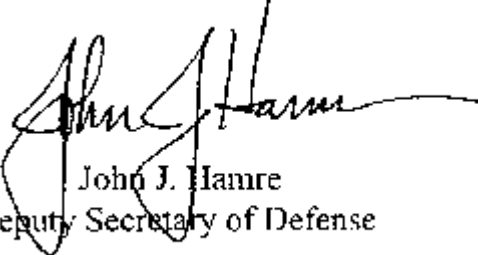

The Heads of the DoD Components, located in the NCR, using the definitions in section 3., above, when no other "local commuting area" has been defined in accordance with the JFTR, volume I, or the JTR, volume II (references (b) and (c)), shall determine if:

5.1. Employees may be reimbursed for local travel when conducting official business from a permanent or temporary duty station in the NCR.
