Being A Muslim in the Western World
Author Imran Ahmad Discusses & Signs “The Perfect Gentleman”

Atlanta, GA. – What is it like to be a Muslim boy growing up in the West? The Jimmy Carter Presidential Library invites you to find out as it hosts author Imran Ahmad for a reading from his book “The Perfect Gentleman : A Muslim Boy Meets the West.” The reading and book signing will be Wednesday, May 2 at 7:00pm in the Carter Museum Theater. It is free and open to the public. Copies of “The Perfect Gentleman” will be available for purchase.

At the age of one, Ahmad moved from Pakistan to London, growing up torn between his Islamic identity and his desire to embrace the West. Join Imran in his lifelong struggle against corruption and injustice, and as he grapples with some of life's most profound questions. A schoolmate's efforts at conversion led him to investigate his faith. Gentle humor, great review and a unique style with unflinching honesty, “The Perfect Gentleman” addresses serious issues in an extraordinarily light way, and will leave readers both thinking deeply and laughing out loud.

Both deliciously funny and deeply insightful, “The Perfect Gentleman” is a beguiling multi-layered memoir that has touched the hearts of readers all over the world.
