ELIGIBILITY FOR EMPLOYMENT BY THE PEACE CORPS, MS 611, PART 4

- Permanent Ineligibility - Persons formerly employed by the Central Intelligence Agency shall be permanently ineligible for employment by the Peace Corps.
- Ineligibility for a Minimum of Ten Years - Any person who had been employed by an agency or division of an agency, other than the Central Intelligence Agency, a substantial part of whose mission has been determined by the Peace Corps General Counsel to include intelligence activities, shall be ineligible for employment for a period of ten (10) years from the last date of employment by such agency.
- Ineligibility for a Period In Excess of Ten Years Individuals may be ineligible for employment for a period in excess of (10) years where the General Counsel determines that their background or work history with regard to intelligence activities warrants such action.
- Related Work - Applicants for employment whose background or work history discloses a substantial connection with an intelligence activity or related work other than through employment shall be ineligible to serve as employees of the Peace Corps for a period of time ordinarily not to exceed ten (10) years from the date of their last connection with the agency or activity. For the purpose of this provision, family relationship to an employee of an intelligence agency may be considered a disqualifying connection.
