ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review the presiding administrative law judge’s (“ALJ”) initial determination (“ID”) (Order No. 30) granting complainants’ motion for summary determination as to the economic prong of domestic industry in the above-captioned investigation.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on January 14, 2009, based on a complaint filed by O2 Micro International, Ltd. of the Cayman Islands and O2 Micro, Inc. of Santa Clara, California (collectively, “O2 Micro”). 74 Fed. Reg. 2099. The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain cold cathode fluorescent lamp inverter circuits and products containing the same by reason of infringement of various U.S. patents. The complaint named ten respondents, some of which have been terminated.

On August 31, 2009, complainant O2 Micro moved for summary determination regarding the economic prong of the domestic industry requirement. On September 10, 2009, respondents Monolithic Power Systems, Inc., ASUSTeK Computer Inc., and ASUS Computer International filed a response indicating that they do not oppose O2 Micro's motion. On September 10, 2009, the Commission investigative attorney filed a response in support of the O2 Micro's motion.

On September 22, 2009, the ALJ issued the subject ID granting O2 Micro's motion for summary determination. In the ID, the ALJ found that O2 Micro has established the economic prong of the domestic industry requirement. No petitions for review of the ID were filed. The Commission has determined not to review the subject ID.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).
