Reg.* 8112. The complaint alleged violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain mobile telephones and wireless communication devices featuring digital cameras, and components thereof, that infringe certain claims of U.S. Patent No. 6,292,218. The complaint named as respondents Apple, Inc., of Cupertino, California; Research in Motion, Ltd., of Ontario, Canada; and Research in Motion Corp., of Irving, Texas.

On January 24, 2011, the ALJ issued a final Initial Determination (“final ID”) finding no violation of section 337. On March 25, 2011, the Commission determined to review the final ID in its entirety. 76 Fed. Reg. 17965. On June 30, 2011, the Commission issued a notice that determined to affirm in part, reverse in part, and remand in part, the final ID. In that notice, the Commission extended the target date by two months, to August 30, 2011, “in order to provide the ALJ with sufficient time for himself to extend the target date based on the need for further proceedings.” Notice at 2.

On August 18, 2011, the Acting Chief ALJ issued the subject ID (Order No. 31), which extended “the target date by two months to October 30, 2011, in order to allow the Investigation to be permanently reassigned, and” to provide “the new ALJ an opportunity to determine the amount of time needed to complete the remand proceeding.” Order No. 31 at 2.

No petitions for review of the ID were filed. The Commission has determined not to review the ID.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.
