Arthur Miller : 1962-2005.
 Christopher Bigsby.

920 MIL1962

This second volume of this magisterial biography offers a compelling narrative of a singular American life, a life story enriched by the biographer's uncommon access to

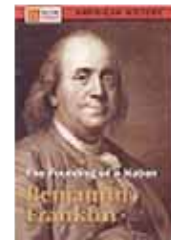

Miller and his unpublished papers while researching this book. The result is an authoritative biography that provides illuminating detail and invaluable insights into Miller the artist and Miller the man.

Black in Latin America.
 Henry Louis. Gates, Jr.

980.00496 GAT
 12.5 million Africans were shipped to the

New World during the Middle Passage. While just over 11.0 million survived the arduous journey, only about 450,000 of them arrived in the United States. Starting with the slave experience and extending to the present, the author unveils the history of the African presence in six Latin American countries: Brazil, Cuba, the Dominican Republic, Haiti, Mexico, and Peru, through art, music, cuisine, dance, politics, and religion, but also the very palpable presence of anti-black racism that has sometimes sought to keep the black cultural presence from view. This volume is the third installment of the author's documentary trilogy on the Black Experience in Africa, the United States, and in Latin America.
