Who lives, who dies, who decides? : abortion, neonatal care, assisted dying, and capital punishment

. Sheldon Ekland-Olson. 179.7 EKL

Issues of life and death such as abortion, assisted suicide, capital punishment, and others are among the most contentious in many societies. Whose rights are protected? How do these rights and protections change over time and who makes those decisions? This book explores these questions and the fundamentally sociological processes that underlie the quest for morality and justice in human societies.

Dark marketing : propaganda oscura, contradicción e irracionalidad en la guerra política contemporánea

. Mauricio Saldaña Rodríguez, J. D. Cortés.

S 320.14 SAL

The author's goal is not to advocate any particular moral "high ground," but to shed light on the social movements and social processes that are at the root of these seemingly personal moral questions.

The journey of man : a genetic odyssey

Spencer Wells.

599.938 WEL

Around 60,000 years ago, a man, genetically identical to us, lived in Africa. Every person alive today is descended from him. How did this real-life Adam wind up as the father of us all? What happened to the descendants of other men who lived at the same time? And why, if modern humans share a single prehistoric ancestor, do we come in so many sizes, shapes, and races?
