Other possible uses for this product include incorporation in soft adhesive roofing systems for vehicles, as a barrier between a composite and aluminum in truck deck-lids, as an outer cover for foam panels used in OEM boat-building applications, and in various other building material applications. Technical comments:⁴

The article description of the existing provision could be clarified as shown on page 1, in addition to putting in the new language about the thickness of the material, to make it more consistent with other tariff provisions. It would be possible to drop the general word “thin” now that a range of covered thicknesses is being proposed.

⁴ The Commission may express an opinion on the HTS classification of a product to facilitate consideration of the bill. However, by law, only the U.S. Customs Service is authorized to issue a binding ruling on this matter. The Commission believes that the U.S. Customs Service should be consulted prior to enactment of the bill.
