Technical comments:<sup>8</sup>

The HTS rate line does not distinguish between sardines, sardinella, and brisling or sprats. Thus, if the duty suspension covers only sardines, Customs and Border Protection may have administrative difficulties in enforcing the bill. We defer to Customs on whether the scope of the bill should be broadened to facilitate enforcement; if desired, the article description would be “sardines, sardinella and brisling or sprats, in oil, in airtight containers, neither skinned nor boned (provided for in subheading 1604.13.20).”

<sup>8</sup> The Commission may express an opinion on the HTS classification of a product to facilitate consideration of the bill. However, by law, only the U.S. Customs Service is authorized to issue a binding ruling on this matter. The Commission believes that the U.S. Customs Service should be consulted prior to enactment of the bill.
