AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review the presiding administrative law judge's ("ALJ") initial determination ("ID") (Order No. 92) in the above-referenced investigation finding respondent Dash Medical Gloves, Inc. ("Dash") in default.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation, on July 6, 2007, based on a complaint filed by Tillotson Corporation d.b.a. Best Manufacturing Company (“Tillotson”). The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain nitrile gloves by reason of infringement of various claims in United States Patent No. Re. 35,616. The complaint named over thirty respondents, including Dash. On September 19, 2007, the ALJ consolidated Inv. No. 337-TA-608 with Inv. No. 337-TA-612.

On July 1, 2008, Tillotson filed a motion for an order to show cause and default against respondent Dash. On July 18, 2008, the ALJ issued Order No. 90 ordering respondent Dash to show cause why it should not be found in default for failing to respond to the complaint and notice of investigation by July 25, 2008.

As of August 1, 2008, no response to the order had been filed by respondent Dash and the ALJ issued the subject ID finding Dash in default. As a consequence, the ALJ found that Dash had waived its right to appear, to be served with documents, and to contest the allegations against it. No petitions for review of this ID were filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the ID.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.
