

Mongolia National Day 11 July 2011

To our NTM-A teammates from Mongolia

On this special day as the people of Mongolia celebrate the 100th year of your independence, your friends and teammates in NTM-A salute you the members of our Mongolian contingent.

With the same spirit your countrymen have shown over the last century in bringing your democracy to life, your skills and enthusiasm are on display here in Afghanistan as vital members of the NTM-A team.

Through your efforts, as part of the international community's commitment to the people of Afghanistan, the Afghan National Security Force is growing stronger and more professional every day. With that growth will come transition to true Afghan self defense.

We are glad you are a member of the NTM-A team and we salute you on Mongolian National Day.

William B. Caldwell, IV
LTG, USA

Commander, NATO Training Mission-Afghanistan and CG, CSTC-A