GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Section I GENERAL

1-1. Purpose and scope. a. This regulation prescribes the separation documents that will be furnished each individual who is separated from the Army including ADT personnel and cadets from the US Military Academy. The purpose of a separation document is to provide the individual with documentary evidence of his military service. It is a vital record for interested Government agencies which assists the veteran in obtaining the rights and benefits to which he is entitled. It is important that information entered thereon be complete and accurate. Accordingly, local procedures will be established to insure that entries on the forms are verified against source documents for completeness and accuracy.

b. This regulation establishes standardized procedures for the preparation and distribution of these documents. Except for general officers being retired, the separation documents will be prepared at the processing transfer station, transfer point, unit personnel section, or personnel service division authorized to accomplish separation.

1-2. Explanation of terms. For the purpose of this regulation, the following terms apply:

a. Separation or separated. Relief from active duty, release from active duty for training, discharge, dismissal, resignation, retirement, placement on the Temporary Disability Retired List, drop from the rolls of the Army, vacation of commission by reason of acceptance of an incompatible military or civil status, removal from office under the Criminal Code of the United States, or release from military control when enlistment or induction is determined to be void.

b. Officer. Male and female commissioned and warrant officers.

c. Active duty for training (ADT). The term "ADT" as used herein refers to all periods of active duty for training performed by a member of a Reserve component and of full-time training or other full-time duty performed by a member of the Army National Guard of the United States in his status as a member of the Army National Guard under sections 503, 504, or 505 of title 32, United States Code.

d. Initial trainee. Members of the Reserve components serving an initial period of ADT under the provisions of section IV, AR 135-200 and NGR 25-5 (serving under orders showing any statutory authority listed in AR 135-200 and NGR 25-5).

e. Separation program number (SPN). A number used in statistical accounting to represent the specific authority and reason for separation. SPNs are an integral part of the authority for separation shown in orders and on the DD Form 214 (Armed Forces of the United States Report of Transfer or Discharge).

Section II. AUTHORIZED SEPARATION DOCUMENTS

1-3. DD Form 214 (Armed Forces of the United States Report of Transfer or Discharge). a. Except as indicated in c below, DD Form 214 will be issued at time of separation to—

- (1) Each member of the Regular Army.
- (2) Each member of the Reserve components, and the AUS without component, called or ordered to active duty.

(3) Each member of the Reserve components ordered to ADT for a period of 90 days or more.

(4) Each member of the Army National Guard of the United States ordered to perform full-time training or other full-time duty in his status as a member of the Army National Guard under sections 503, 504, or 505 of title 32, United States Code, for a period of 90 days or more.

(5) Each person who is released from custody and control of the Army by virtue of void service.

(6) Each person described in (3) and (4) above without regard to the period for which he was ordered to ADT if he is separated for physical disability.

b. DD Form 214 will also be furnished the following individuals at time of change of status or extension of active duty:

(1) Dual status officers who revert to status as warrant officer, Regular Army.

(3) Enlisted personnel who are released to the Army Reserve upon completion of the period for which inducted and immediately ordered to active duty as reservists.

(4) ARNGUS enlisted personnel whose concurrent discharge from the State Army National Guard as a Reserve enlisted member of the Army is accomplished while on active duty for the purpose of immediate reenlistment and extension of active duty tour.

(5) Officers of the Reserve components on active duty who accept appointment in the Regular Army and continue on active duty. When requested by the officer, issuance is authorized when DD Form 214 was not previously furnished.

c. DD Form 214 will not be issued to the following:

(1) Members of the Reserve components dropped from the rolls of the Army by reason of absence without leave or desertion or who were in an absence without leave status at time of termination of ADT status.

1-5. Presidential Certificate of Appreciation (DD Form 1725). A Certificate of Appreciation, signed by the President as Commander in Chief of the Armed Forces, has been established for the purpose of extending the Nation's appreciation for military service. This certificate is an expression of gratitude to the individual and is not intended to have any legal effect on entitlement to veteran's benefits. Accordingly, a copy of the certificate, or a notation that the member has or has not received the certificate, will not be made a part of the member's permanent military record.

a. A Certificate of Appreciation (DD Form 1725) will be presented to each officer and enlisted person honorably separated from active duty, including retirees, except for the following:

(1) Personnel serving on active duty for less than 90 days, and personnel performing an initial tour of active duty for training.

(2) Personnel discharged under the provisions of AR 635-20; AR 635-206; AR 635-212; chapter 5, AR 635-100; paragraphs 9-5 through 9-9 and chapter 10, AR 635-200; and chapters 4, 5, 10, 12, 13, and 14, AR 635-120.

(3) Personnel separated under the authority of the Secretary of the Army, when Department of the Army directive precludes issuance.

b. The Certificate of Appreciation will be completed with name (in signature order), grade, military service, and inclusive dates of service. It will be presented, whenever practicable, prior to the time of the member's departure from the separation activity on the effective date of separation or on the date travel time, when authorized, commences. The certificate will be mailed to the individual when separation is accomplished under conditions precluding physical delivery, or when the individual departs well in advance of normal departure time, i.e., transferred to a Veterans Administration hospital, or to his home awaiting separation for physical disability.

This certificate may be withheld when it is considered that the character of service rendered does not warrant a Certificate of Appreciation even though the member is entitled to retirement.

1-8. Discharge certificates (app B). a. Certificates issued to enlisted personnel will be in accordance with AR 635-200.

a. After thorough comparison has been made between entries on DD Form 214WS and that on DD Form 214, the worksheet will be retained by the transfer activity for 6 months and then destroyed.

b. Item instructions for entries on all copies of DD Form 214, arranged in numerical order, are given below. An entry will be made in each item. c. Each page must be clear and distinct. Clean type and firm pressure are needed to make each copy completely legible. Prior to distribution, copies of DD Form 214 will be checked for legibility and, if necessary, legible copies will be prepared.

d. As this form will be read by civilians who may not be familiar with military terms, abbreviations will be used sparingly.

e. The DD Form 214 (fig. 2-1) contains spaces for items deemed appropriate. No additional entries will be made unless specifically authorized by Headquarters, Department of the Army.

f. Observe the marginal instructions printed in the left margin of the form. All entries other than those in the "Personal Data" section apply to the current period of service, except that in those cases when enlisted personnel were not furnished a DD Form 214 upon discharge from a previous enlistment or enlistments, items 17, 19, 20, 22a(1), and 22c through 25 of the DD Form 214, will cover all service not previously covered by a DD Form 214.

2-2. Alterations and corrections. a. Typographical errors in words and abbreviations only may be corrected by erasure and overtype, provided such corrections are neat and legible and do not penetrate or smear the form. They will be initialed by the authenticating officer on all copies. The form will be remade in all other instances of error.

b. The individual to whom the DD Form 214 is issued will be informed that the making of any change or alteration therein will render the form void.

c. If an error is discovered in the DD Form 214 after the individual has departed from the transfer activity and/or distribution of copies of the form has been made, correction or change will be made only by The Adjutant General, Department of the Army. Requests for correction will be addressed in accordance with paragraph 1-12.
