The Census must count everyone living in the United States on April 1, 2010.

Before you answer Question 1, count the people living in this house, apartment, or mobile home using every method you can.

- Count all people, including babies, who live at this address most of the time.

The Census Bureau does not count people in institutions and other places, such as:

- Do not count anyone living away either at college or in the Armed Forces.
Do not count anyone in a nursing home, jail, prison, detention facility, etc., on April 1, 2010.
Leave these people off your form, even if they will return to live here after they leave college, the nursing home, the military, jail, etc. Otherwise, they may be counted.

The Census must also include people without a permanent place to stay, so:

- If someone who has no permanent place to stay lives here on April 1, 2010, count that person. If you do not, she may be missed in the census.
