Subject: Revision of Form TSP-U-17, Information Relating to Deceased Participant

Date: August 1, 2002

The Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board has revised Form TSP-U-17, Information Relating to Deceased Participant, for use in the new record keeping system. The August 2002 revision of the form will be available from the uniformed services section of the Thrift Savings Plan (TSP) Web site at www.tsp.gov beginning August 23, 2002. An advance copy of the revised form is attached to this bulletin.

Purpose of Form TSP-U-17. Form TSP-U-17 must be submitted to the TSP record keeper to initiate the disbursement of a deceased participant's uniformed services TSP account. As stated at the top of the form, a copy of the participant's death certificate must also be submitted to the record keeper.

Dissemination of Form-U-17. Applicants may obtain Form TSP-U-17 from the TSP Web site or from the TSP Service Office. If a participant dies while still a member of the uniformed services, the participant's service should provide Form TSP-U-17 to a family member, executor, or potential beneficiary. Services may obtain the form by downloading it from the Web site, or they may have a representative of their central distribution point order a supply by completing the Thrift Savings Plan Publications Order Form (TSP-U-40).

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

IV. DETAILED INFORMATION ABOUT POTENTIAL BENEFICIARIES The information in this section will be used to locate potential beneficiaries. Be sure to fill in the deceased participant's name and Social Security number at the top of the page. If you need to list more than four persons, make as many photocopies of the page as you need. Check the box at the bottom of the page and indicate the number of additional pages attached.

If you cannot provide all of the requested information, provide as much information as you can. Write "Don't Know" on any line for which you do not have information. If the information that you are able to provide is not enough to contact the potential beneficiary (that is, if you cannot provide a full address or telephone number) or if you only have information about some of the beneficiaries, complete Section V also.

When providing information about a potential beneficiary who was living at the time of the participant's death but who died after the participant, be sure to provide the date of death for that person.

If you are providing information about children of the participant, be sure to include natural children (including those who were born out of wedlock) and those who were adopted by the participant. Do not provide information for natural children who were adopted by someone other than the participant's spouse.

In the following (correctly filled-out) example, the participant was not married at the time of death, but the participant had two living children, a deceased child who had a son, and a surviving father. See a se the participant was not married at the time of death, the applicant provided information of our the participant's living children and the grandchild (from the participant's deceased child) identified in Item 19. The two and need to provide information about the deceased child identified in Item 19. The two and the participant. There was also no need to provide information about the surviving the beneficiaries according to a set tutory or and corrected end.

IV. DETAILED INFORMATION ABOUT POTENTIAL BENEFICIARIES	If the participant was married at the time of death, provide the requested information for the deceased participant's spouse only. Otherwise, provide the requested information for all living children of the participant and all living children of deceased children whom you identified in Item 19 in Section III. (You do not need to provide this information for any children identified in Item 19B who died before the participant.) When providing a phone number for a person living outside the United States or Canada, enter the number exactly as you would dial it from the United States.
·	for parent(s) of the participant identified as living in Items 20A and 20B. If there were no living parents, provide information about the executor or administrator identified in Item 21.
