What happens when I contact the Tip Line?

When you contact the TEXT & WEB Tip Line you will always communicate with a live operator. Once you submit your tip you will be given a unique tip number. You will never be asked your name or personal information. Do NOT share the tip number with anyone.

What do I do if I get more information?

If you have more information at a later time re-contact the TEXT & WEB Tip Line anytime, and provide an update to your original tip.

How does the online submission process work?

When you submit a tip online, your form is sent using state of the art software through a Secure Socket Connection (SSL). Tips submitted through the web are encrypted, entirely confidential, completely anonymous and are immediately and securely transferred directly to NCIS. After submitting your tip, you will be provided with your own unique tip number and will be afforded an opportunity to create a password that you will use when checking on the status of your tip or check on the status of your reward. To submit a Web tip go to www.ncis.navy.mil or check your Command's homepage.

24/7 ANONYMOUS TIP SUBMISSION
TEXT • WEB • SMARTPHONE APP

The tip line offers a reward of up to $1,000 for information leading to a felony arrest, the recovery of drugs or stolen property.

Does NCIS give rewards?

NCIS has a discreet and anonymous system that allows rewards to be paid to tipsters who provide information that leads to an arrest of a suspect, the recovery of stolen property, the seizure of narcotics, or the recovery of an illegal weapon. Contact us and you may receive a cash reward of up to $1,000. Do your part to report crime and contribute to a safer military.

Isn't using email to submit a tip the same as using the online submission?

NO, email transmissions are not secure and will not protect your anonymity. Although email transmissions are an effective method of communication, they pass through several servers prior to arriving at their final destination and are subject to possible hijacking, hacking or other forms of malicious attack.
