This record is being sent for identification purposes only. It does not convey the individuals immigration status and is not an immigration detainer.

Statement on Disclosure of Visa Records

According to the Immigration and Nationality Act, section 222(f): "The records of the Department of State and of diplomatic and consular offices of the United States pertaining to the issuance or refusal of visas or permits to enter the United States shall be considered confidential and shall be used only for the formulation, amendment, administration, or enforcement of the immigration, nationality, and other laws of the United States...."

The attached visa record may only be used for the purposes for which it is being shared. Information in this record may not under any circumstances be disclosed to any entity other than the receiving agency, including the general public, without the express written consent of the Department of State (DOS). Any questions concerning the interpretation of DOS visa records or the parameters for disclosure of such records under INA section 222(f) must be addressed by the DOS. However, should access to DOS visa records generate inquiries by receiving agencies about a person's legal status in the United States, such inquiries should be directed to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), which has jurisdiction over questions of legal status in the United States.
