

Joseph E. Johnson
Chief of Staff
Defense Acquisition University

Mr. Joseph E. Johnson is the Chief of Staff of the Defense Acquisition University (DAU). In this position, he is responsible for coordinating the university's strategic planning process, faculty policy, outreach and communications program, human resources management and professional development, logistics, and other support services.

Prior to assuming his current position, Mr. Johnson served in a variety of positions in the U.S. Army, including Dean of College Administration and Services at the Defense Systems Management College; Commander of the Defense Contract Management Command, Manassas; Executive Officer to the Commander of Defense Contract Management Command; and faculty member at both the U.S. Army Quartermaster School and the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College. He has also served as an electronic warfare contracting officer, field service company commander, tank-automotive maintenance officer, and division property book officer. He retired from the Army at the rank of colonel.

Mr. Johnson is a graduate of the U.S. Army War College, the Program Manager's Course, and the Logistics Executive Development Course.
