Virtual Town Hall Set for February 18

Web Event Slated to Address Industry Questions

February 8, 2010, Alexandria, Va. – National Credit Union Administration Chairman Debbie Matz will host a Town Hall Webinar Thursday, February 18 at 3 p.m. (EST) where staff will discuss several pending regulatory proposals – strengthening the corporate credit union system and streamlining community charter applications – in addition to other salient topics.

The free webinar is open to all, especially those unable to attend an onsite Town Hall Meeting, and NCUA encourages audience participation. Viewers can submit questions that will be addressed during the live session. The virtual meeting will be archived and available for viewing on demand within two weeks following the event.

To register for the webinar, click the link below. You will receive an email confirmation. Registered participants should also use this link to log into the live session February 18.
