NCUA Issues Prohibition Orders

June 7, 2010, Alexandria, Va.,— The National Credit Union Administration Board has issued orders prohibiting the following individuals from participating in the affairs of any federally insured financial institution.

Jason Rene Kisor, a former employee of Pen Air Federal Credit Union, Pensacola, Florida, was convicted of theft, embezzlement or misapplication of funds. Kisor was sentenced to 3 days imprisonment with a credit of 1 day, 5 years of supervised release and ordered to pay $58,123 in restitution.

Melissa Laliberte, a former employee of Meriden Franco-American Federal Credit Union, Meriden, Connecticut, was convicted of embezzlement from a credit union and filing a false income tax return. Laliberte was sentenced to 51 months in prison on Count One and 36 months in prison on Count Two; followed by 36 months of supervised release on Count One, and 12 months supervised release on Count Two; and ordered to $961,871 in restitution to NCUA and IRS.

Christine McLamb, a former employee of Health Facilities Federal Credit Union, Florence, South Carolina, was convicted of embezzlement and sentenced to 75 months imprisonment, 5 years supervised release, and ordered to pay $1,033,965 in restitution.

Cynthia Vaughan, a former manager of Rockland Employees Federal Credit Union, Spring Valley, New York, based upon her indictment for three counts of Bank Fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1344.

NCUA enforcement orders are online at click here, and may be inspected at NCUA's Office of General Counsel between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. Copies may be ordered by mail from NCUA, 1775 Duke St., Alexandria, Va. 22314-3428.

Violation of a prohibition order is a felony offense punishable by imprisonment and a fine of up to $1 million.

The National Credit Union Administration is the independent federal agency that charters and supervises federal credit unions. NCUA, with the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. government, operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the savings of 90 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the majority of state-chartered credit unions.
