Enhancing Transparency, NCUA Posts Initial Board Meeting Video

Watch the NCUA Board in Action Via Streaming Video

August 12, 2010, Alexandria, Va. – The National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) today posted an online video of the open NCUA Board meeting conducted on July 29, 2010. In the coming months, each open Board meeting video will be available to view within a few weeks after it is recorded, and the video will remain online for several months.

“Posting the full unedited video of each open NCUA Board meeting will enhance the agency’s transparency,” said NCUA Chairman Debbie Matz. “Our intent is to provide the credit union community and other interested stakeholders with opportunities to watch the NCUA Board in action. We believe it will be informative for stakeholders who cannot attend our meetings in person to see and hear the deliberations that result in NCUA Board actions.”

The videos will be captioned for the hearing-impaired. The captions also will serve as official minutes of the meetings.
