ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

SEC OBTAINS SETTLED JUDGMENTS AGAINST FINAL THREE DEFENDANTS IN OLIVER TRANSPORTATION ACCOUNTING FRAUD CASE

The Commission has obtained settled final judgments against the remaining three defendants in its accounting fraud case against eight former officers and employees of Oliver Transportation, Inc., a now-defunct trucking company that operated out of Mexico, Missouri. The judgments, recently entered by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri, enjoin defendants Willard A. "Tony" Meador, his wife Julie McNabb-Meador, and Patrick M. Jacobi from violating the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 (Section 17(a)) and the antifraud and record-falsification provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Section 10(b) and 13(b)(5) and Rules 10b-5 and 13b2-1 thereunder). The Court's judgment against Willard Meador, who was Oliver Transportation's president, further enjoins Meador from violating an Exchange Act rule that prohibits corporate directors and officers from misleading company accountants (Rule 13b2-2), prohibits Meador from acting as an officer or director of any public company, and orders Meador to disgorge, with interest, $64,140 in illicit proceeds he received from his participation in the fraud. Based on the demonstrated inability of all three defendants to pay, the Court did not impose civil penalties on any of them and waived Meador's disgorgement obligation. All three defendants consented to entry of the judgments without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint.

The Commission's complaint, filed on December 16, 1998, alleged that from June 1993 through August 1995, the defendants unlawfully inflated the financial results of Oliver Transportation by fabricating customer orders for trucking services and recording phony accounts receivable that were reported in financial statements included in public filings and statements made by Oliver Transportation. According to the complaint, nearly half of Oliver Transportation's reported accounts receivable were fictitious by the time the fraud was uncovered in August 1995. When the Commission filed its complaint, five of the eight named defendants settled the case without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations. For more information see Lit. Rel. 16003/AAER 1089 (December 17, 1998). The settlements announced today conclude the litigation of this matter. [SEC v. John F. "Pete" Oliver, et al., No. 98 CV 00075, DJS, E.D. Mo.] (LR-16702; AAE Rel. 1301)

KEVIN LINDSEY AND THOMAS PERZ ENJOINED AND FINED FOR INSIDER TRADING IN MARQUETTE MEDICAL SYSTEMS, INC.

On September 14, an injunctive Order was entered in an insider trading case filed by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission against Kevin L. Lindsey, resident of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and Thomas R. Perz, resident of Waukesha, Wisconsin. Under the settlement, Lindsey and Perz are enjoined from violating antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws, and must each pay a civil penalty of $386,875. In addition, Perz must surrender $386,875 in trading profits plus $60,687.11 in prejudgment interest. Perz and Lindsey consented to the entry of the Order without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint.

The complaint alleges that Lindsey, a Corporate Comptroller and Vice President of Business Development at Marquette Medical Systems, Inc. (Marquette), tipped his friend Perz with confidential information about General Electric Corporation's upcoming acquisition of Marquette, then a Nasdaq-listed company. While in possession of this information, Perz purchased 10,000 shares of Marquette stock on September 9, 1998 and another 10,000 shares on September 16, 1998. GE's acquisition of Marquette was announced on September 21, 1998 and Perz's stock gained $386,875 in value. [SEC v. Lindsey and Perz, N.D. Ill., Civil Action No. 00-C-5539] (LR-16703)
