SEC NEWS DIGEST

Issue 2000-212

November 3, 2000

COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

LIMITED EXTENSION OF LEGACY EDGAR

On November 2, the Commission announced that it will continue to support the EDGAR legacy filing system along with the modernized EDGAR filing system beyond the original November 27, 2000 transition date. The Commission is taking this action at the request of members of the filing community. The new termination date for the EDGAR legacy system will be April 20, 2001. No legacy filings may be submitted after that date.

As of April 20, 2001, filers using EDGARLink software will have to use EDGARLink Version 7.0 (or higher) to submit filings to EDGAR over the Internet, through direct transmission or on magnetic tape cartridge. Filers may continue to submit their official filings in either ASCII or HTML format. For additional information, please visit the Commission's web site at <<http://www.sec.gov/edaux/news/edplan2.htm>>.

We strongly urge filers to make the transition to the modernized EDGARLink and filing system now, and to take advantage of this additional time to become more familiar with the new software and to make test filings. For assistance with the transition, filers may contact Filer Support at 202-942-8900. (Press Rel. 2000-166)

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS REPORT RELEASED

On October 31, 2000, the Report on Administrative Proceedings for the Period April 1, 2000 through September 30, 2000 was issued, giving summary statistical information on the Commission's administrative proceedings caseload. Reports are issued each October and April, are published in the SEC Docket, and appear on the Commission's website. (Rel. 34-43500)

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

IN THE MATTER OF AMERICORP SECURITIES, INC. AND DREW EDGAR SCHAEFER

On November 1, the Commission approved a plan for distribution of disgorgement for monies disgorged by Drew Edgar Schaefer (Schaefer). Pursuant to an order entered by the Commission on consent on August 11, 1999, Schaefer paid to the Commission a total of $200,000 in disgorgement. The disgorgement represents a portion of Americorp Securities, Inc.'s (Americorp) and Schaefer's alleged unjust enrichment from a fraudulent scheme involving the initial public offering of securities in PHC, Inc. More specifically, the Commission alleged, among other things, that Americorp and Schaefer illegally delayed the execution of orders for PHC stock until the end of the trading day on March 3, 1994 in order to sell PHC stock from Americorp's own inventory at higher prices.

The distribution plan provides for the distribution of the disgorgement amounts on a pro rata basis to certain affected accounts. The affected accounts are all retail customer accounts in which purchase orders for PHC common stock were executed by Americorp at the end of the day on March 3, 1994, at a price of $6 per share (including markup). (Rel. 33-7913)

SEC V. ELLIOT LAVIGNE

The Commission filed a civil injunctive action on November 2, 2000 in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York against Elliot Lavigne, formerly the Chairman of the Perry Ellis Division of Salant Corp., Executive Vice President of Marketing at Salant Corp., Chief Operating Officer of Donna Karan Jeanswear (when it was a division of Designer Holdings), and Chief Executive Officer of Jordache Enterprises. The Commission alleged that Lavigne violated the federal securities laws by participating in the manipulation of twenty-three initial public offerings (IPOs) underwritten by Stratton Oakmont, Inc. (Stratton) over a five-year period. The United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York has also filed related criminal charges against Lavigne.

The Commission's complaint alleges that from 1991 through 1995, Lavigne was a key participant in a series of manipulations orchestrated by Stratton, obtaining illicit profits totaling at least $7.4 million for his role in the frauds. Lavigne had a secret agreement with one of Stratton's principals, Jordan Belfort (Belfort), by which Lavigne would make illegal trades and the two men would split Lavigne's profits. Lavigne paid Belfort his share of the profits by delivering large sums of cash to Belfort.

Stratton was the quintessential "boiler room," and the manipulations followed a standard formula. Stratton gained control over the float of each stock by issuing allocations of IPO stock to persons with whom Stratton had entered into secret agreements to serve as “nominees.” The nominees received their stock with the understanding that they would sell the stock back to Stratton shortly after trading had commenced in the aftermarket. Stratton would then manipulate the price of the stock up to artificially inflated levels, and earn huge profits by using high-pressure sales tactics to sell the stock to their own customers. Lavigne acted as a nominee in twenty-three of the manipulations, and earned over $7.2 million in total profits by selling his stock back to Stratton.

In one of the Stratton IPO manipulations in which Lavigne served as a nominee, he also received bridge units in exchange for a bridge loan he had made to the issuer. According to the prospectus filed by the issuer, the bridge units were subject to a lock-up agreement prohibiting Lavigne from selling the units for at least thirteen months after the IPO without the underwriter’s permission. However, Lavigne entered into a secret agreement with Stratton that was contrary to the representations made in the prospectus. Pursuant to this secret deal, Lavigne was released from the lock-up agreement shortly after trading had commenced in the aftermarket. Lavigne then sold his shares back to Stratton, earning over $200,000 more in illegal profits.

As a result of this conduct, the Commission alleges that Lavigne violated Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) and of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. The Commission seeks an order barring Lavigne from serving as an officer or director of a public company, permanent injunctive relief, disgorgement of ill-gotten gains, civil money penalties, and other relief.

The Commission acknowledges the assistance of the United States Attorney’s Office for the Eastern District of New York in the investigation of this matter. [SEC v. Elliot Lavigne, 00-CV-6024, E.D.N.Y.] (LR-16788)
