SEC POSTS SECURITIES INDUSTRY Y2K READINESS INFORMATION OF WEB

The Commission has posted a searchable database on the SEC Web site that gives investors instant access to the Y2K readiness reports that certain broker-dealers, transfer agents, investment advisers, and mutual funds are required to file with the SEC.

The database to date includes more than 13,000 reports that describe their

- * state of Y2K readiness
- * costs to address the Y2K problem
- * Y2K risks
- * contingency plans

The Commission views the Year 2000 problem as a serious issue that, if not addressed, could disrupt the proper functioning of many of the world's computer systems. To prevent disruptions, companies need to examine their computers and programs, fix the problem, test their systems, test interactions with other organizations, and certify their computer systems as Y2K compliant before January 1, 2000. (Press Rel. 99-18)

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

CIVIL ACTION AGAINST LISA HERBST

The Commission today filed an insider trading case alleging that an investor relations consultant obtained nonpublic information about three high-technology companies while performing services for them and used the information to trade in the clients' securities before the information became public. The action was filed against Lisa C. Herbst (Herbst) of Pleasanton, California.

The Commission alleged that between 1995 and 1998 Herbst engaged in illegal insider trading in the securities of the following three Northern California high-technology companies:

Adobe Systems, Inc., based in San Jose, California
Asyst Technologies, Inc., based in Fremont, California
Splash Technology Holdings, Inc., based in Sunnyvale, California

In the complaint, filed on February 11, 1999, in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, the Commission alleges that Herbst had been hired to assist these companies with the preparation and distribution of press releases, and that she traded before the announcements on which she worked were made public. In particular, the complaint alleges that on four occasions Herbst bought common stock before positive news announcements, and on one occasion she sold common stock before a negative news announcement. Herbst is the owner of Herbst Consulting of Pleasanton.

Herbst cooperated with the Commission's investigation and, without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations, consented to a permanent injunction prohibiting future violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. Herbst also agreed to pay a total of $32,799.67, including $15,791.50 in disgorgement of realized and unrealized profits and losses avoided, prejudgment interest of $1,216.67, and a civil penalty of $15,791.50.

The Commission acknowledges the assistance of NASD Regulation, Inc., in this matter. [SEC v. Lisa C. Herbst, Civil Action No. 99-00621 SI, N.D. Cal.] (LR-16059)

FINAL JUDGMENTS ON CONSENT ENTERED AGAINST PETER BUCCHIERI AND DAVID WEIL

The Commission announced the filing on February 11 of final judgments on consent against Peter C. Bucchieri and David S. Weil in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. According to the Commission's complaint, filed on November 13, 1996, Bucchieri and Weil violated certain antifraud, registration, disclosure, and record-keeping provisions of the federal securities laws while serving as principals of Star Capital Management, Inc. (Star Capital), a now-defunct investment advisory firm. Among other things, Bucchieri and Weil misappropriated at least $1.2 million dollars from Star Capital through the sale of sham "pooled" real estate investments and the diversion of funds from clients' bank accounts.

Without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint, Bucchieri and Weil each consented to permanent injunctions against future violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, and Sections 203(a), 206(1), 206(2), and 206(4) of the Investment Advisers Act. Additionally, Weil was ordered to pay disgorgement in the amount of $454,306.26, plus pre-judgment interest thereon in the amount of $237,487.57. These payments were waived based upon Weil's inability to pay.

Bucchieri and Weil were both sentenced to terms of imprisonment and ordered to pay restitution in related criminal proceedings (U.S. v. Bucchieri, 96 Cr. 1070, RJW; U.S. v. Weil, 95 Cr. 1102, MBM). [SEC v. Peter Bucchieri and David S. Weil, USDC, SDNY, 96 Civ. 8508, LMM] (LR-16060)

FEDERAL COURT PROCEEDINGS ALLEGING INSIDER TRADING SETTLED WITH PHYSIO-CONTROL INTERNATIONAL CORP. EMPLOYEE

The Commission has instituted and simultaneously settled a federal court proceeding against Gorman K. Wong, a Finance Manager at Physio-Control International Corp. The Commission alleged that Wong used nonpublic information about Physio-Control's impending acquisition by Medtronic, Inc. when buying Physio-Control stock in June 1998. The Commission alleged that Wong earned profits of $8,068.75 on his insider trading.

As a result of these proceedings, Wong has agreed to disgorge the $8,068.75 in profits and to pay prejudgment interest in the amount of $99.81 and a civil penalty in the amount of $8,068.75. In addition, Wong is permanently enjoined from violating the antifraud provisions of the Federal securities laws. [SEC v. Gorman K. Wong, USDC, WD Wash., Civil Action No. 99-01094] (LR-16061)
