COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

EDGAR PHASE-IN COMPLETE ON MAY 6, 1996

The Division of Corporation Finance today is publishing a notice (Release No. 34-36997) to all domestic registrants whose filings are subject to its review to remind them that the phase-in to mandated electronic filing on the Commission's Electronic Data Gathering, Analysis, and Retrieval (EDGAR) system will be complete on May 6, 1996. Beginning on that date, all domestic registrants not previously phased in, and third parties filing with respect to such registrants, will become subject to mandated electronic filing requirements, as outlined in Regulation S-T (17 CFR Part 232). This applies to companies assigned to Group CF-10, as well as to those that previously have not been assigned a phase-in group. Beginning May 6, registration statements for initial public offerings also must be filed electronically, unless the filing is made at one of the Commission's regional offices.

Domestic registrants that will be phased in May 6 may begin filing electronically before that date if they wish, once they have filed a Form ID with the Commission and received EDGAR access and identification codes. It is no longer necessary for them to contact the staff to request a change in their phase-in group. Registrants may begin testing on the system once access codes have been issued. Early compliance with electronic filing requirements is encouraged once registrants become comfortable with the system.

Once a company becomes a mandated electronic filer, all filings made with respect to it by third parties (for example, Schedules 13D and 13G) must be made electronically. Third parties will not be required to file electronically with respect to companies whose phase-in date is May 6 until that date. If third parties wish to file electronically, however, they may do so at any time, whether or not the subject company has begun to make its own filings via EDGAR. Persons filing Forms 3, 4 and 5 pursuant to Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and those filing Forms 144 pursuant to Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933, may file these documents in paper or electronic format, since electronic filing of these forms will continue to be optional after May 6.

Foreign private issuers and foreign governments will not be required to file electronically (unless acting as a third party filer with respect to an electronic domestic company or engaging in a business transaction with a phased-in domestic company), but they may choose to do so. Such entities can gain access to the EDGAR system by filing a Form ID to receive EDGAR access and identification codes. EDGAR currently recognizes many of the types of forms that may be filed by foreign registrants, but some form types, such as those associated with the multijurisdictional disclosure system, are not yet available; as a consequence, filings not supported by EDGAR must be made in paper. The EDGAR system will be enhanced in the future to allow electronic filing of these documents.

As is true with all rules promulgated by the Commission, persons making filings with the Commission are responsible for apprising themselves of their new obligations associated with filing on the EDGAR system. While the Commission has attempted to contact registrants in this last phase-in group by furnishing a copy of the current version of the EDGAR Filer Manual and EDGARLink software (with mailing having taken place the week of March 11), registrants will not be relieved of their electronic filing obligations in the absence of such notification. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Sylvia J. Reis, Assistant Director, CF EDGAR Policy, Division of Corporation Finance, at (202) 942-2940.

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

DISTRICT COURT GRANTS EMERGENCY MOTION FOR SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONAL RELIEF AGAINST LIFE PARTNERS AND BRIAN PARDO

On March 19, the United States District Court for the District of Columbia issued an order granting the Commission's emergency motion to prohibit the defendants from proceeding with plans to resume sales of fractional interests in viatical settlements under purportedly revised procedures. The order comes just eight weeks after the Court specifically enjoined the defendants from selling such unregistered investment contracts [SEC v. Life Partners, Inc., 912 F. Supp. 4, D.D.C. 1996]. That order, in turn, followed a decision issued by the Court last August in which it held that the SEC had made a strong prima facie showing that the defendants were making materially false and misleading representations and omissions in connection with the offer and sale of unregistered securities, and directed the defendants to bring their operations into compliance with the federal securities laws "forthwith" [SEC v. Life Partners, Inc., 898 F. Supp. 14, D.D.C. 1995]. [SEC v. Life Partners, Inc. and Brian D. Pardo, Civil Action No. 94-1861, D.D.C.] (LR-14849)

The order would provide exemptions to the extent necessary to permit the deduction of mortality and expense risk charges from the assets of the Account in connection with the issuance and sale of certain group variable annuity contracts with prescribed sales loads (Contracts). The amendment will provide additional relief so that the exemption from the provisions of Sections 26(a)(2)(C) and 27(c)(2) will extend to the mortality and expense risk charges under the Contracts as revised by Principal Mutual; and the exemptive relief regarding the mortality and expense risk charges and the relief provided by the previous order will extend to any variable annuity contracts that may be offered in the future that are substantially similar in all material respects to the Contracts (Future Contracts) that are funded by the Account or any other separate accounts established in the future by Principal Mutual and that may be offered by Princor or any other members of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. that may in the future serve as principal underwriters of the Contracts or Future Contracts.
