COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

PUBLIC COMMENT SOUGHT ON THE NEED FOR GREATER PROTECTION FOR SENIOR CITIZENS AND QUALIFIED RETIREMENT PLANS FROM SECURITIES FRAUD AND FRIVOLOUS LITIGATION

The Commission announced that it was seeking public comment to determine whether investors that are senior citizens or qualified retirement plans require greater protection against securities fraud than is currently provided under the federal securities laws; and whether investors that are senior citizens or qualified retirement plans have been adversely impacted by abusive or unnecessary securities fraud litigation, and whether the current provisions of the federal securities laws are sufficient to protect them from such litigation. The Commission is also soliciting comment on the more general question of the role of senior citizens and qualified retirement plans in our securities markets.

The request for comments is made in connection with the requirements of Section 106 on the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, which directs the Commission to make these determinations and, if it determines that greater protections are necessary, submit a report to the Congress containing its recommendations by June 19, 1996.

Persons wishing to respond should file three copies of their written comments with Jonathan G. Katz, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549. Comments may also be submitted electronically at the following E-mail address: rule-comments@sec.gov. All written comments should refer to File No. S7-8-96; this file number should be included on the subject line if E-mail is used. The comments will be available for public inspection and copying in the Commission's Public Reference Room, 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549. Electronically submitted comments will be posted on the Commission's Internet web site (<http://www.sec.gov>).

NOTICE TO READERS:

PAPER COPY DISSEMINATION OF SEC NEWS DIGEST TO BE DISCONTINUED

By the end of March, the Office of Public Affairs will complete its transition to electronic publication of the SEC News Digest. As a result, after March 29, 1996 paper copies of the Digest will no longer be mailed or made available at Headquarters for messenger pick-up. Instead, we will be publishing the Digest on the Commission's World Wide Web site and the FedWorld electronic bulletin board. On the Commission's Internet site, readers will also be able to access most litigation releases, administrative proceeding orders, rule proposals, final rules, Congressional testimony, speeches, press releases, special reports, the EDGAR database of corporate filings and other materials.

This change will provide current subscribers and the public at large with same-day access to the Digest and a broad range of documents and information. It will also enable us to devote more of our resources to expanding and improving the scope of our electronic information dissemination services. Overall we will be able to provide an increased volume of information on a more timely basis in a more accessible and useful form.

The Internet address for the Commission's World Wide Web site is "<http://www.sec.gov>". The Fedworld electronic bulletin board can be accessed through the World Wide Web at "<http://www.fedworld.gov>" or by dialing directly via modem at (703) 321-3339.

While these services are free, readers will be responsible for all connection charges including long-distance telephone fees and Internet connection services. Users experiencing difficulties connecting to the World Wide Web site or FedWorld should contact their Internet service provider. Readers experiencing difficulties dialing FedWorld directly should call the FedWorld customer service line at (703) 487-4608.

People with questions or comments regarding this change in service should write to Carlene Akins, Editor, Office of Public Affairs, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549.

We have appreciated your interest in our publication over the years and look forward to serving you in a more efficient and effective manner by utilization of this new publication medium.

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST JOHN AND LINDA DANKOVICH

The Commission today announced the entry of an Order Instituting Proceedings, Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Sanctions Pursuant to Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Order) against John and Linda Dankovich. Simultaneously with the institution of these proceedings, the Commission accepted the Dankoviches' Offers of Settlement, in which they consented, without admitting or denying the Commission's findings, to the issuance of the Order which bars them from association with any broker, dealer, investment company, investment adviser, or municipal securities dealer. The Order finds that from July 1994 through April 1995 the Dankoviches acted as broker-dealers within the meaning of Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and that on March 22, 1996, the United States District Court for the District of Columbia entered a Final Judgment which permanently enjoined both Dankoviches from future violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Sections 10(b), 15(a) and 15(c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Rules 10b-5, 15b1-1 and 15c1-2 thereunder; and permanently enjoined John Dankovich from future violations of Sections 7(f) of the Exchange Act and Regulation X promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. The Final Judgment issued by the District Court also required the Dankoviches to jointly and severally disgorge $51,653, representing $47,841 in funds the Commission alleged in its Complaint were fraudulently obtained from investors by the Dankoviches, together with $3,812 in prejudgment interest thereon.
