ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

COMPLAINT ALLEGING FRAUD IN SALE OF "PRIME BANK" SECURITIES FILED AGAINST KENNETH EDWARDS, FIRST AMERICAN COMPANIES AND OTHERS

The Securities and Exchange Commission today announced the filing of a complaint with the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California against Kenneth E. Edwards and Roger S. Chedester of the Sacramento, California area, Donald E. Luna, A.R. Grant Morehouse and the First American Companies, Inc. of Hilton Head, South Carolina.

The Commission's complaint alleges that Edwards was involved in three separate schemes to sell fraudulent "prime bank" securities. Edwards helped raise over $3 million dollars from investors between July 1994 and January 1995.

The selling of "prime bank" securities is a frequent form of fraud. Investors are promised annual returns in excess of 100 percent with no risk to principal, a return purportedly available because the seller of the securities trades in the off-balance sheet debt obligations of certain "prime banks". The first of three schemes involved securities fraudulently issued by First American Companies, Inc., led by Luna and Morehouse.

The Commission seeks an order enjoining future violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws, as well as disgorgement from each defendant of ill-gotten gains. [Securities and Exchange Commission v. Kenneth E. Edwards, Roger S. Chedester, Donald E. Luna, A.R. Grant Morehouse, and the First American Companies, Inc., USDC ED Cal., CIV-s-96 1716 GEB GHJ (LR-15111)].

JAMES CLEVELAND INDICTED IN TWO TEXAS COUNTIES

The Commission and the District Attorney for the 21st Judicial District, Texas, announced that grand juries in Burleson County and Washington County returned indictments against James Russell Cleveland of Brenham, Texas, on September 4, 1996, and September 24, 1996, respectively. The indictments charge that Cleveland unlawfully and deceptively appropriated funds belonging to investors with the intent to deprive the owners of their property.

The indictments are based on the same activities alleged in a civil action filed by the Commission in United States District Court, Houston, Texas, on May 22, 1996. The Commission's complaint alleges that Cleveland, individually, and doing business as Central Texas Securities, took in at least $4.8 million from his customers to purchase municipal securities at below market prices, but never purchased the bonds for the investors. In fact, the complaint alleges, Cleveland used funds received from new investors to pay off previous customers, and used falsified confirmations and account statements to conceal his misuse and misappropriation of customers' funds. The Commission's civil case against Cleveland is continuing. [State of Texas v. James Russell Cleveland, 21st Jud. Dist., Cause Nos. 11526 and 12319] (LR-15112)

ROBERT DOVIK AGREES TO FINAL JUDGMENT

The Commission announced that on October 3 an Agreed Final Judgment was entered against Robert F. Doviak, II (Doviak), requiring Doviak to disgorge $844,000, plus prejudgment interest, which represents the total disgorgement amount less the net value of assets Doviak previously turned over to the Special Master appointed by the Court. However, payment of the disgorgement amount and prejudgment interest was waived based on Doviak's demonstrated inability to pay. Additionally, no civil money penalty was imposed based on his poor financial condition.

On September 15, 1993, Doviak consented to the entry of a permanent injunction which enjoined him from future violations of the federal securities laws. Doviak consented to the entry of the injunction without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint that he raised over $4 million in sales of limited partnership interests, and diverted over $1 million either to himself or to fund the broker-dealer he controlled. The complaint also alleged that the broker-dealer, aided and abetted by Doviak, failed to maintain the minimum required net capital on four separate occasions and committed numerous violations of the book and record keeping, and notice provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Doviak is currently serving 27 months in federal prison for the same activities alleged in the Commission's civil action. [Securities and Exchange Commission v. Robert F. Doviak, II, et al., 3:93CV0444, USDC/ND TX] (LR-15113)
