CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

DONALD H. HOSKING ENJOINED

The Boston Regional Office announced that on March 31 the Honorable Walter J. Skinner of the U.S. District Court of Massachusetts entered an Order of Permanent Injunction against Donald H. Hosking. The defendant consented to the entry of the order without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint. The injunction enjoins and restrains Hosking from further aiding and abetting violations of Section 31(a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and Rule 31a-1 thereunder, and from further violations of Sections 34(a) and 34(b) of the Investment Company Act.

The Commission's complaint alleged that Hosking and other defendants violated and aided and abetted violations of the books and records provisions of the Investment Company Act over a period of approximately ten years and while employed by New England Merchants Bank, in connection with custodial and shareholder record-keeping services provided several investment companies (the Funds) by New England Merchants Bank.

Further, the Commission's complaint alleged that Hosking and other defendants altered certain books and other documents of the Funds by incorrectly recording (a) sales and redemptions of the Funds' securities, (b) the number of shares held by shareholders of the Funds, and (c) the dates, number of shares and prices of shares in certain accounts. Also alleged in the complaint is that Hosking and other defendants made untrue statements of and omitted to state material facts in certain records required to be kept by registered investment companies regarding (1) sales of the Funds' securities, (2) shareholder ownership, (3) the amount of capital shares of the Funds owned by shareholders, and (4) redemptions of the Funds' securities. (SEC v. Edward J. Falvey, et al., Civil Action No. 82-0197-S, U.S.D.C., District of Massachusetts). (LR-9640)

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

ROBERT W. SLOCUM CONVICTED

The New York Regional Office announced that on March 12 a federal jury convicted Robert W. Slocum of violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws, mail, wire and bank fraud, and conspiracy to commit bank larceny. After a three week trial, the jury found that Slocum, as president of International Trade Development of Costa Rica, S.A. (ITD), employed a sales force to sell unregistered securities of ITD, promising to double the investors' money in 90 days. Slocum's fraudulent scheme resulted in losses to investors in excess of $4 million. Slocum was also convicted of fraud in connection with the sale of ITD's securities, wire and mail fraud, and transporting fraudulently obtained monies interstate. Additionally, Slocum was convicted of conspiracy to commit bank larceny and bank fraud for negotiating bad checks.

In March 1977, the Commission obtained a consent injunction against Slocum and a default judgment against ITD enjoining them from further sales of unregistered securities and further violations of the antifraud provisions of the Exchange Act. (U.S. v. Robert W. Slocum, et al., 81 Cr. 0444, HFW, S.D.N.Y.). (LR-9636)
