CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

CACTUS ENERGY COMPANY, OTHERS ENJOINED

The Fort Worth Regional Office announced that on June 8 the Honorable Lee West, U.S. District Court Judge for the Western District of Oklahoma, entered an Order of Permanent Injunction against Cactus Energy Company and Filco, Inc. of Bethany, Oklahoma, and Amarillo, Texas, respectively, and Daniel H. Lloyd of Piedmont, Oklahoma. The Order permanently enjoins the defendants from further violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws. The defendants consented to the entry of the Order without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint.

The complaint, also filed on June 8, alleged that the defendants offered and sold over $4.7 million of unregistered securities in the form of fractional undivided interests and limited partnership interests in oil and gas leases to approximately 170 investors. The complaint further alleged that the defendants made material misrepresentations and omitted to state material facts, concerning, among other things: the amount and rate of return an investor could expect from an investment with Cactus or Filco; the financial condition of Cactus; the background and experience of Lloyd; the number of wells drilled and owned by Filco; and the property to be acquired by Filco investors. (SEC v. Daniel H. Lloyd, et al., USDC/WD/OKLA/Civ. No. 82-824W). (LR-9696)

JAMES MITCHELL NEWMAN CONVICTED

The New York Regional Office announced that on May 21 James Mitchell Newman of New York, New York, was convicted by a U.S. District Court Jury in the Southern District of New York on 15 counts of securities fraud, conspiracy to commit securities fraud, and mail fraud. On February 3, 1981, a federal grand jury in Manhattan indicted Newman and three other defendants on 27 counts of those offenses. The indictment charged that Newman and the other defendants effected transactions in the securities of 17 companies on the basis of material, nonpublic information about impending takeovers of those companies. The indictment was dismissed by U.S. District Judge Charles S. Haight, Jr. on May 19, 1981. On October 30, 1981 the judgment of dismissal was reversed and the indictment reinstated by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. Newman is scheduled to be sentenced by Judge Haight on July 8. (U.S. v. James Mitchell Newman, et al., 82 Cr. 166, CSH, S.D.N.Y.). (LR-9697)
