OPEN MEETING - TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1987 - 9:30 a.m.

The subject matter of the February 17 open meeting will be:

The Commission is hosting a roundtable concerning the growing internationalization of the securities markets. Due to the increasing movement towards global trading markets for certain securities and the significant flow of investments across national borders, the Commission believes that it is appropriate to review these developments in the roundtable discussions. In the morning session, scheduled for 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon, the participants will include representatives from the securities industry and various securities markets, including the American, Amsterdam, London, New York, and Toronto Stock Exchanges, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., and the International Securities Clearance Corporation. The topics will include international secondary market trading mechanisms, the availability of market information, transnational surveillance sharing, international clearance and settlement systems, possible regulatory adaptations, and barriers to the entry of foreign markets.

In the afternoon session, scheduled for 2:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m., the participants will be representatives of the securities bar, investment firms, and a money management firm. Topics will relate to primary offerings of U.S. securities abroad, the nature of global investments from the perspective of an equity fund manager, foreign broker-dealer activity in the U.S., and adaptations of or effects of Rules 10b-6 and 10b-7 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT William M. Harter, Jr. at (202) 272-2414 or Christine A. Sakach at (202) 272-2418.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST ROBERT SALSBUARY

The Commission simultaneously instituted and settled administrative proceedings against Robert Salsbury based on his participation in an insider trading scheme. As part of the settlement, Salsbury admitted to knowingly having received material, non-public information from a corporate lawyer concerning a tender offer for Avondale Mills, and having conveyed this information to others who traded in securities of Avondale while in possession of it. Under the Commission's order, Salsbury is barred from association in any capacity with any broker, dealer, investment company, investment adviser, or municipal securities dealer, provided that after three years he may apply to the appropriate self-regulatory organization or, where none exists, to the Commission, to become associated with such entities.

Salsbury pleaded guilty on June 5, 1986 to two counts of a criminal indictment charging him with conspiracy to violate the mail fraud statute and endeavoring to obstruct a Commission investigation. On December 2, 1986 Salsbury was convicted and sentenced to three years probation and 200 hours of community service each year for three years. (Rel. 34-24019)
