ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

MICHAEL JOSEPH BOYLAN AND HAROLD HARRIS

Administrative Law Judge Ralph Hunter Tracy has filed an initial decision ordering that Michael Joseph Boylan and Harold Harris of Los Angeles, California, each be suspended from association with any broker or dealer for a period of 90 days and 120 days, respectively. Boylan is also suspended for an initial period of 9 months from association with any broker or dealer as a financial principal.

Judge Tracy found that Boylan, as president, and Harris, as a registered representative, of the former Ashlar Corporation, wilfully violated the antifraud provisions of the Exchange Act by failing to disclose material information concerning customer accounts which Ashlar cleared through other brokers on a fully disclosed basis. Charges that Boylan and Harris aided and abetted violations of Sections 7(a) and 7(c) of the Exchange Act and Regulation T promulgated thereunder were dismissed by Judge Tracy.

The decision is subject to appeal to the Commission.

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

CARDIFF INDUSTRIES, INC. ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on August 19 the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia enjoined Cardiff Industries, Inc. of Denver, Colorado, from failing to file timely periodic reports with the Commission and ordered it to comply with certain undertakings. The Commission's complaint, filed on May 5, alleged that Cardiff had failed to file an Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1979, required to have been filed with the Commission by March 30, 1980. Further, the complaint alleged that Cardiff failed to file timely certain annual and quarterly reports as part of a continuing course of conduct. Cardiff, in consenting to entry of judgment against it, admitted failure to file reports on a timely basis on four separate occasions. (SEC v. Cardiff Industries, Inc., U.S.D.C. D.C., Civil Action No. 80-1117). (LR-9162)

The Los Angeles Regional Office has filed a complaint in the Central District of California seeking to enjoin Curtis R. Richmond from further violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The complaint charges that Richmond engaged in fraudulent practices in connection with six oil and gas limited partnerships. According to the complaint, Richmond appropriated over $130,000 of partnership funds for his own benefit, and was responsible for the diversion of another $65,000 to a third party. Additionally, the complaint includes an allegation that Richmond intentionally failed to disclose to investors that he is the subject of two previous court injunctions and a Commission order as a result of prior violations of the securities laws. (SEC v. Curtis R. Richmond, C.D. Cal., CV-80-03239 WMB). (LR-9163)
