

NCUA Media Release

Registration for Oct. 4 Webinar with NCUA Chairman Matz Still Open

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (Sept. 28, 2012) – Credit union staff and volunteers still have time to register for the online town hall with National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) Board Chairman Debbie Matz scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 4, beginning at 3 p.m. EDT.

Registration for this free NCUA webinar is available online at <https://event.on24.com/eventRegistration/EventLobbyServlet?target=registration.jsp&eventid=514012&sessionid=1&key=24C375868C73E3913508C934F0BEB2AC&sourcepage=register>. Participants will also use this link to log into the webinar after registration. Registrants should allow pop-ups from this website.

The free webinar will feature updates on:

- Credit union industry performance
- NCUA's low-income credit union eligibility initiative
- NCUA's Regulatory Modernization Initiative
- The corporate credit union resolution
- The new Office of National Examinations and Supervision
- Recently finalized and proposed rules

During the live webinar, participants will be able to type in questions about any topic of interest relating to the credit union industry. Participants also may email questions in advance at WebinarQuestions@ncua.gov. The subject line should read, "Matz Town Hall Webinar."

For technical questions related to accessing the webinar, call 703-518-6440.

NCUA is the independent federal agency created by the U.S. Congress to regulate, charter and supervise federal credit unions. With the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. Government, NCUA operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the deposits of more than 93 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the overwhelming majority of state-chartered credit unions.

- NCUA -