CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

INJUNCTIVE ACTION FILED AGAINST KAROLA JAMISON

The Commission announced that on August 16 it filed a civil injunctive action in the U.S. District Court for the District of Hawaii against Karola E. Jamison (Jamison) alleging that she violated the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. The complaint also seeks an accounting and disgorgement.

The complaint alleges that from about March 1988 through November 1989 Jamison, a resident of Hawaii, engaged in a fraudulent investment scheme whereby she offered and sold securities in a purported international loan program, called the Collateralized Funding Program (CFP), raising approximately $1.02 million from more than 40 investors. Jamison, capitalizing on her husband's high rank in the military attracted investors who were primarily military personnel and acquaintances of Jamison.

The complaint also alleges that, undisclosed to investors, the CFP was really a Ponzi scheme consisting of nothing more than a few failed transactions. Jamison also misled investors concerning the risks of the investment, the non-refundability of commitment fees and the true nature of the international loan program. Moreover, Jamison failed to inform investors that investor funds were commingled with funds in her personal and unrelated business accounts and were used by her to pay personal and unrelated business expenses. [SEC v. Karola E. Jamison, Civil Action No. 93-00639, HMF, USDC, Hawaii] (LR-13756)

GARY DIGIROLAMO AND AIR TECH INDUSTRIES, INC. CONSENT TO PERMANENT INJUNCTIONS

The Commission announced today that on August 13 a Final Consent Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Other Relief was entered against Defendants Gary L. DiGirolamo (DiGirolamo) and Air Tech Industries, Inc. (Air Tech) enjoining them from violating Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. Both defendants neither admitted nor denied the allegations in the Commission's complaint. The Final Judgment does not resolve disgorgement, prejudgment interest or penalties sought by the Commission against either DiGirolamo or Air Tech.

The Commission's complaint alleges that Hercules Capital Inc., a broker-dealer registered with the Commission, and its president, Craig Medoff, and Air Tech and its president, DiGirolamo, fraudulently offered $2 million in unregistered securities to investors across the country.

The Commission's action against the remaining defendants is pending. [SEC v. Medoff, et al., 93 Civ. 5573, LLS, USDC, SDNY] (LR-13757)

COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST SPECIAL DELIVERY SYSTEMS, INC., ET AL.

The Commission announced that on August 18 a civil complaint was filed in New York against SDS, a Florida based package delivery company; Majzoub, SDS' President; Call, SDS' Executive Vice President; Sharkey, Bivona, Dunphy, Mastroianni, Bonanno, and Dadey, registered representatives (RRs); and, as relief defendants, Masri, Grieco and Odom.

The complaint alleges that the RRs violated the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws by making material misrepresentations and omissions to customers purchasing SDS. Among other things, the RRs failed to inform customers that they were receiving undisclosed compensation from SDS, in excess of the compensation stated in the SDS offering material.

The complaint alleges that SDS violated the issuer reporting provisions of the federal securities laws by failing to disclose in its periodic reports that it made undisclosed payments to the RRs. Majzoub and Call aided and abetted SDS in these violations by preparing and signing the reports.

Finally, the complaint alleges that Masri, Grieco and Odom received SDS IPO proceeds to which they were not entitled.

Sharkey, Bivona and Bonanno each consented, without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint, to the entry of a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Other Equitable Relief and the issuance of an Order by the Commission that bars them from association with any broker, dealer, investment adviser, investment company or municipal securities dealer. [SEC v. Special Delivery Systems, Inc., et al., Civil Action No. 93-CIV 5766, PKL, SDNY] (LR-13758)
